MILITIA GENERAL ORDERS.

HEAD QUARTERS.

Ottawa, 3rd January, 1879.

GENERAL ORDERS (1.)

No. 1.

General Mourning by Officers.

Adverting to General Orders (26) 19th December 1878, the Mourning to be worn by officers in uniform will correspond with that ordered for Her Majesty's Forces, and consists of a band of black crape round the left arm above the elbow, only.

No. 2.

Claims, Indemnification for Losses.

Claims for indemnification for losses, or injuries by accidents, or other causes are frequently preferred from all parts of the country. These accidents often show that ordinary precautions have not been adopted and that discipline has not been carefully attended to. It will therefore be understood in future, that such claims for indemnification will not be paid, unless it is clearly shown the accident—whether to man or horse, or the loss of whatever description—was entirely unavoidable, and could not by any care or pre-arrangement have been prevented or avoided.

In every case where indemnification is sought for, a full statement of the whole cause must accompany the proceedings of a board, which must carefully investigate and give an opinion on the merits of each case specially.

No. 3.

Helmets for Corps.

As the means available for the purchase of uniform clothing for the Active Militia is not sufficient to permit the issue of both helmets and forage caps, there will be no objection to corps of Artillery, Engineers and Infantry wearing helmets procured at their own expense. It is, however, to be understood that such helmets must be similar to those worn by the corresponding arm of the Imperial Regular Army, with the exception that the ornaments and devices upon them must conform to Militia Regulation.

Réclamations, indemnités pour pertes.

Les réclamations d'indemnité pour pertes, ou blessures par accidents ou autrement qui nous arrivent des différentes parties du pays, sont très fréquentes. Souvent ces accidents sont les suites d'un manque de précautions et d'une discipline suivie avec trop peu de soins. En conséquence il devra être bien entendu qu'à l'avenir il ne sera payé de réclamations d'indemnité que lorsqu'il aura été clairement établi que l'accident—soit à un homme soit à un cheval ou soit pour la perte d'un objet quelconque—a été inévitable et que malgré tout le soin possible ou les précautions prises à cet effet on n'a pu le prévenir ou l'empêcher.

Chaque fois qu'il s'agira d'une telle indemnité, un état complet de l'affaire devra accompagner le rapport du bureau qui aura été nommé pour s'enquérir des causes du fait en question ; et ce bureau devra de plus donner son opinion sur les mérites de chaque cas en particulier.

No. 3.

Casques pour les Corps de Milice.

Comme les moyens disponibles pour l'achat d'habillements d'uniforme pour la milice active ne sont pas suffisants pour permettre de fournir à la fois des casques—appelés heaumes—et des bonnets de police (forage caps), les corps d'artillerie, d'ingénieurs et d'infanterie qui portent ce casque auront la liberté de se le procurer à leurs propres frais.

Cependant, il devra être bien compris que ces heaumes devront être semblables à ceux que portent les corps d'une arme correspondante dans l'armée régulière de Sa Majesté, à l'exception, toutefois, des ornements et des devises placées sur ces casques, qui devront être telque le veulent les règlements de la Milice.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit:

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba:

Un avis doit être inséré à la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district; ou s'il n'y parait pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces:

Un avis doit être inséré à la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires; et mentionner des plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.

ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

72. Quiconque a l'intention de demander un bill de divorce, doit donner avis de son intention, et spécifier d'avec qui et pour quelle cause il veut divorcer. L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y parait pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou privilèges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit:

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba:

Un avis doit être inséré à la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces:

Un avis doit être inséré à la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires; et mentionner des plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

72. Quiconque a l'intention de demander un bill de divorce, doit donner avis de son intention, et spécifier d'avec qui et pour quelle cause il veut divorcer. L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y paraît pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.

Inspection of Artillery and Engineers.

As the Inspection of Artillery and Engineers is entirely a scientific and distinct duty from the ordinary inspection of Cavalry and Infantry, Inspectors of Artillery will, in future, fix their own dates for making such inspections. There is considerable inconvenience from Deputy Adjutants General fixing the same day for their inspections as that of the Inspector of Artillery, as much of the short time available is thereby lost in common place parades, which ought to be devoted to scrutinizing Artillery proficiency; and this can only be carried out by the officers of that branch who are capable of performing the duty.

The District Staff will therefore not interfere with the day or days selected by the Artillery Inspectors who have long distances to travel.

In fact the inspection of Artillery by District Staff is nearly superfluous, and to save travelling expenses will be discontinued, except when Artillery Inspectors are unable to attend.

51. All applications for Private Bills, properly the subjects of legislation by the Parliament of Canada, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railroad, Turnpike Road or Telegraph Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam or Slide, or other like work; the granting the right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular Trade or Calling, or of any Banking or other Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for the granting to any individual or individuals, any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which, in its operation, would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community; or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act, shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and (except in the case of existing corporations) signed by, or on behalf of the applicants, to be published as follows, viz:

In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, in the English and French languages, and in one newspaper in the English, and in one in the French language in the district affected, or in both languages in one paper, if there be but one in the said District, or if there be no paper published therein, then, in both languages, in a paper in the nearest District, in which a newspaper is published.

Inspection de l'Artillerie et du Génie.

Comme l'inspection de l'artillerie et du génie est du domaine d'une science spéciale et d'un caractère tout-à-fait distinct de l'inspection ordinaire de la cavalerie et de l'infanterie, les inspecteurs d'artillerie, fixeront eux-mêmes, à l'avenir, l'époque où devra se faire cette inspection. La coutume de fixer la même date pour l'inspection, qu'ont à faire les sous-adjudants-généraux et l'inspecteur d'artillerie, cause beaucoup d'inconvénients, car le peu de temps qu'ils ont pour cela se passe en partie dans des exercices ordinaires de parade, tandis qu'il devrait être employé à examiner minutieusement l'artillerie sur ses connaissances et ses progrès; ce qui ne peut se faire que par des officiers de cette dernière arme et capables de remplir ce devoir.

En conséquence les officiers de l'état-major de district n'auront point à s'occuper du jour ou des jours que choisiront les inspecteurs d'artillerie qui ont souvent de fortes distances à parcourir.

L'inspection de l'artillerie par un officier de l'état-major de district est de fait une chose presque superflue; et afin d'épargner des frais de voyage, elle sera discontinuée, excepté lorsque les inspecteurs d'artillerie ne pourront point se rendre pour faire cette inspection.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit:

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba:

Un avis doit être inséré à la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces:

Un avis doit être inséré à la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires; et mentionner des plus amples s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, in the English and French languages, and in one newspaper in the English, and in one in the French language in the district affected, or in both languages in one paper, if there be but one in the said District, or if there be no paper published therein, then, in both languages, in a paper in the nearest District, in which a newspaper is published.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable ; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société ; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit :

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba :

Un avis doit être inséré à la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district ; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces :

Un avis doit être inséré à la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires ; et mentionner des plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français ; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation ; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y paraît pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être

signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu ; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.

In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, in the English and French languages, and in one newspaper in the English, and in one in the French language in the District affected, or in both languages in one paper, if there be but one in the said District, or if there be no paper published therein, then, in both languages, in a paper in the nearest District, in which a newspaper is published.

In any other Province.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, and in one newspaper published in the County, or Union of Counties affected, or if there be no paper published therein, then in a newspaper in the nearest County in which a newspaper is published. Such Notices to be continued in each case, for a period of two months during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition. And copies of the newspapers containing the first and last insertion of such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of each House.

When a Petition is for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, the petitioner or petitioners, upon giving the notice prescribed by the preceding Rule, shall also, at the same time, and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask; the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and whether they intend to erect a drawbridge, and the dimensions of the same.

Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall, eight days before the meeting of Parliament, deposit with the Clerk of the House, in which the bill is to originate, a copy of such bill in the English or French language, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same—600 copies to be printed in English, and 200 copies in French—the translation to be done by the officers of the House, and the printing by the contractor. The applicant shall be also required to pay the accountant of the House a sum of $200 and the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes, and lodge the receipt of the same with the Clerk of the Committee to which such Bill is referred—such payment to be made immediately after the second reading, and before the consideration of the Bill by such Committee.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit:

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba:

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces:

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires; et mentionner de plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y paraît pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être

signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu ; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.

Third—Every licensed Pilot shall have a suitable boat, approved by the Pilot authority of the district.

Fourth—Each licensed Pilot shall be entitled to collect the amounts of Pilotage fees earned by himself individually.

Fifth—Any Pilot piloting a vessel from sea shall be entitled to pilot her to sea when she next leaves port, unless (on request of master, owner or agent of said vessel) the Pilot authority directs otherwise.

Sixth—Any licensed Pilot offering his services to any ship or vessel appearing off or within the Pilotage district intending to come in, or which shall come into port and being refused (no other licensed Pilot being on board of said vessel), such Pilot so refused shall be entitled to demand and collect the same rate of pilotage as if he had been actually employed to

In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, in the English and French languages, and in one newspaper in the English, and in one in the French language in the District affected, or in both languages in one paper, if there be but one in the said District, or if there be no paper published therein, then, in both languages, in a paper in the nearest District, in which a newspaper is published.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit:

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba:

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces:

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires; et mentionner de plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

72. Quiconque a l'intention de demander un bill de divorce, doit donner avis de son intention, et spécifier d'avec qui et pour quelle cause il veut divorcer. L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y paraît pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être

SPEECH.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate :

Gentlemen of the House of Commons :

In meeting the Parliament of Canada for the first time, I desire to express the gratification I feel at having been selected by Her Majesty for the high and important office I now fill, and to assure you of the great satisfaction with which I now seek your aid and co-operation.

In acknowledging with profound gratitude the reception which has been accorded to myself, as Her Majesty's representative, I am also commanded by The Queen to convey, through you, to the people of Canada, Her thanks for the loyal, generous and kindly manner in which they have welcomed Her daughter.

The contribution of Canadian products and manufactures to the great National Exhibition at Paris, last year, attracted much attention, and, it is believed, will have a beneficial effect on the trade of the Dominion with Europe. I congratulate you on the success which must, in no small degree, be attributable to the kind and unceasing exertions of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, as President of the British section. The report of the Canadian Commissioners will be laid before you when received.

I am pleased to inform you that the amount awarded for the Fishery claims, under the Washington Treaty, has been paid by the United States, and that Her Majesty's Government has arranged with Canada and Newfoundland for their respective shares of the award.

CHAMBRE DU SÉNAT.

Ottawa, vendredi, 14 février 1879.

Son Excellence le Gouverneur-Général s'est rendue aujourd'hui, à Trois heures, P. M., avec le cérémonial ordinaire, à la Chambre du Sénat, et ayant pris Son Siége sur le Trône, Son Excellence a requis la présence de la Chambre des Communes. Les membres de ce corps, précédés par leur Orateur, l'Honorable Joseph Godéric Blanchet ont paru incontinent à la Barre. Alors l'Honorable Joseph Godéric Blanchet a informé Son Excellence que le choix de la Chambre des Communes, comme Orateur, était tombé sur lui, et qu'il réclamait pour les Membres les priviléges ordinaires du Parlement.

Après quoi, il a plu à Son Excellence de faire le Discours suivant :

DISCOURS.

Honorables Messieurs du Sénat :

Messieurs de la Chambre des Communes.

En me présentant pour la première fois devant le Parlement du Canada, je désire exprimer le plaisir que j'éprouve d'avoir été appelé à la haute et importante fonction que je remplis maintenant, et vous assurer de l'entière satisfaction avec laquelle je viens demander votre concours et votre aide.

Je témoigne ma profonde reconnaissance pour la réception dont j'ai été l'objet moi-même comme représentant de Sa Majesté, et j'ai le devoir, d'après l'ordre de la Reine, de transmettre, par votre intermédiaire, au peuple du Canada, les remercîments de Sa Majesté pour le loyal, généreux et sympathique accueil fait par lui à sa fille.

Les produits et les objets manufacturés envoyés par le Canada à la Grande Exposition internationale de Paris, l'année dernière, ont beaucoup attiré l'attention, et l'on croit que ce fait aura des conséquences favorables pour le commerce du Canada avec l'Europe. Je vous félicite de ce succès, qui doit être, en grande partie, attribué aux bienveillants et incessants efforts de Son Altesse Royale le Prince de Galles comme président de la section Britannique. Le rapport du commissaire canadien vous sera communiqué, dès qu'il aura été reçu.

J'ai le plaisir de vous informer que la somme accordée pour les droits de pêcheries, d'après le traité de Washington, a été payée par les Etats-Unis, et que le gouvernement de Sa Majesté a réglé avec le Canada et Terreneuve leur part

The papers on the subject shall be submitted to you.

The important and rapidly increasing trade between Canada and England, in live cattle, has been seriously threatened by the appearance, in various parts of the United States, of pleuro-pneumonia. In order to prevent the contagion from spreading to Canada, and the consequent interruption of the trade, I have caused an Order to be issued under "The Animal Contagious Diseases' Act, 1869," prohibiting the importation or introduction into the Dominion of American cattle, for a short period. It is hoped that the disease will be, ere long, extinguished in the United States, and the necessity for continuing the prohibition removed. Your attention will be invited to an amendment of the Act I have just referred to.

My Government has commenced negotiations, with Her Majesty's sanction, for the development of the trade of Canada with France and Spain, and with their respective colonies. I hope to be able to lay before you the result of these negotiations during the present session.

It is the purpose of my Government to press for the most vigorous prosecution of the Canadian Pacific Railway and to meet the reasonable expectations of British Columbia. In carrying out this intention, due regard must be had to the financial position of the country. Communication by rail has been effected between Manitoba and the United States system of railways by the junction, at St. Vincent, of the Pembina branch of our railway, with the St. Paul and Pacific Railroad. That portion of the main line which extends from English River to Keewatin is now being placed under contract, and will be energetically pushed to completion in order to secure, as rapidly as is possible, the connection between Lake Superior and the great North-West.

A Bill for the amendment and consolidation of the Acts relating to Stamps shall be submitted for you consideration, as well as a measure amending the Act relating to Weights and Measures.

The decennial census must be taken in 1881. I think it expedient that a measure for the purpose should be passed during the present Session in order to give ample time for the preparation of all the preliminary arrangements, and to ensure the census being taken as accurately and inexpensively as possible. In connection with this subject it may be well to consider the propriety respective de l'indemnité. Les documents concernant cette affaire vous seront soumis. L'important commerce du bétail vivant entre le Canada et l'Angleterre, commerce qui prend un rapide accroissement, a été sérieusement menacé par l'apparition de la pleuro-pneumonie dans différentes parties des Etats-Unis. Pour prévenir l'invasion de la contagion en Canada, et l'interruption du commerce qui s'en serait suivie, j'ai fait rendre, par application de l'acte de 1869, relatif aux maladies contagieuses qui attaquent les animaux, une ordonnance prohibant l'importation ou introduction en Canada des bestiaux américains, pour une courte durée. On espère que la maladie sera détruite avant longtemps aux Etats-Unis et que la nécessité de continuer la prohibition disparaîtra en conséquence. Votre attention sera appelée sur un amendement à faire à l'acte que je viens de mentionner.

Mon gouvernement a entamé, avec l'approbation de Sa Majesté, des négociations tendant au développement du Commerce Canadien avec la France et l'Espagne, ainsi qu'avec leurs colonies respectives. J'espère pouvoir vous communiquer le résultat de ces négociations pendant la présente session.

Mon gouvernement se propose de presser avec la plus grande vigueur l'exécution du chemin de fer Canadien du Pacifique, et de satisfaire ainsi à l'attente raisonnable de la Colombie-Britannique. En donnant suite à cette intention, il est nécessaire d'avoir égard à la situation financière du pays. Une communication par rail a été établie entre le Manitoba et le réseau des chemins de fer américains au moyen de la jonction, opérée à St. Vincent, de l'embranchement Pembina de notre chemin de fer avec la ligne de St. Paul au Pacifique. Cette partie de notre grande ligne qui va de la Rivière aux-Anglais à Kéwatin, se donne maintenant à l'entreprise, et on en hâtera la confection afin de relier au plutôt le lac Supérieur au grand Nord-Ouest.

Un bill à l'effet d'amender et de refondre les actes concernant les timbres, sera soumis à votre examen, ainsi qu'une mesure portant modification à l'acte relatif aux poids et mesures.

Le recensement décennal doit avoir lieu en 1881. Je crois opportun qu'une mesure à ce sujet soit passé pendant la présente session, pour donner amplement le temps de faire les préparatifs et dispositions préliminaires, et pour s'assurer que le recensement sera exécuté avec autant d'exactitude et d'économie que possible. Relativement à ce sujet, il peut être bon de con-of providing some means for the collection and collation of vital, criminal and general statistics.

A Bill will be laid before you for the re-arrangement of some of the Departments of the Government, and also measures relating to the survey and management of the Dominion Lands, to the Mounted Police, and to the Post Office Department; and also for the amendment, in some particulars, of the laws relating to Indians.

A measure will also be submitted to you for the vesting in Her Majesty, for the use of the Dominion, of certain ordnance and admiralty lands in the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The Estimates for the ensuing year will be laid before you at an early day. They have been prepared with as much regard to economy as is compatible with the efficiency of the public service.

I regret that the receipts into the Treasury from ordinary sources continue to be inadequate to meet the charges against the Consolidated Revenue. You will, I doubt not, agree with me in the opinion that it is not desirable that our finances should longer remain in this condition. By the application of the strictest economy to the public expenditure, and by the re-adjustment of the tariff with the view of increasing the revenue, and, at the same time, of developing and encouraging the various industries of Canada, you will, I trust, be enabled to restore the equilibrium between revenue and expenditure, and to aid in removing the commercial and financial depression which unhappily continues to exist. I have directed that the Public Accounts of the past financial year shall be laid before you.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

Parliament has recognized the importance of providing for the safe deposit of the surplus earnings of the people by arranging for their being placed with the Government at a fair rate of interest. It may be well for you to consider how far it is practicable to give a like security and encouragement to persons who may desire, by an insurance upon their lives, to make provision for those dependent upon them.

Your best attention will, I doubt not, be given to the important subjects I have alluded to, and to the general interests of the country.

sidérer la convenance de pourvoir à quelque moyen de recueillir des statistiques vitales, criminelles et générales, et de les comparer.

Il vous sera soumis un bill pour la ré-organisation de certains départements du gouvernement; des mesures relatives à l'arpentage et à l'administration des terres fédérales, à la police à cheval, au Département des Postes, et une mesure à l'effet d'amender en quelques points les lois concernant les Sauvages. Il vous sera soumis de plus une mesure ayant pour objet de transférer à Sa Majesté, à l'usage du Canada, la propriété de terrains de l'artillerie et de l'amirauté dans les provinces de la Nouvelle-Ecosse et du Nouveau-Brunswick.

Messieurs de la Chambre des Communes:

Le budget pour l'année prochaine vous sera présenté sous peu. En le préparant, on a apporté toute l'économie compatible avec l'efficacité du service public. Je regrette que les recettes versées au trésor, et provenant des sources ordinaires, continuent à être insuffisantes pour satisfaire aux dépenses à la charge du revenu consolidé. Je ne doute pas que vous ne pensiez avec moi qu'il n'est point désirable de voir nos finances rester plus longtemps dans cette situation. En appliquant la plus stricte économie à la dépense publique et en remaniant le tarif en vue d'accroître le revenu, et tout à la fois de développer et d'encourager les diverses industries canadiennes, vous pourrez, j'espère, rétablir l'équilibre entre le revenu et la dépense, et aider à faire cesser la crise commerciale et économique qui malheureusement dure encore parmi nous.

Honorables Messieurs du Sénat:

Messieurs de la Chambre des Communes:

Le Parlement a reconnu l'importance qu'il y avait d'offrir au public un moyen de déposer en sûreté ses épargnes, en prenant des dispositions pour lui permettre de les placer entre les mains du gouvernement à un taux raisonnable d'intérêt. Il vous conviendra peut-être de considérer jusqu'à quel point il serait possible d'offrir la même garantie, et le même encouragement aux personnes ayant le désir de pourvoir, par une assurance sur leur vie aux besoins de ceux qui dépendent d'elles.

Vous donnerez, je n'en doute point, toute votre attention aux importants sujets que j'indique et aux intérêts généraux du pays.

Seventh—All licensed Pilots must make due returns to the Pilotage authority of the district of the name, tonnage, rig, nationality of every vessel piloted by him from sea, when he boarded her, and what extra services were rendered by him, if any, the amount of fees received by him; he shall report all vessels spoken by him which have refused to accept his services, and shall also report any casualty or accident that may have happened to any vessel under his charge; and said report shall be made monthly from the first day of April to the thirty-first day of December in each and every year.

Fourteenth—The rates for outward bound vessels to be the same as inward bound, and vessels outward are not compelled to take a pilot beyond the limits of the second division.

Fifteenth—The rates of pilotage dues at the Port of Crapaud shall be as follows:—

—	First Division.	Second Division.	Third Division.
Vessels of 80 tons and under 125 tons.	$1.25	$2.00	$3.25
" 125 " " 250 "	1.75	2.25	3.50
" 250 " " 350 "	2.00	2.50	3.75
" 350 " " 450 "	2.25	3.25	4.25

And all vessels exceeding 450 tons a half cent par ton each way for the excess of tonnage above 450 in addition to the above rate for 450 tons.

Sixteenth—Where vessels have to be moved about the wharves and Pilots retained by Captains of vessels for such services, said Pilot will not be allowed to charge more than one dollar and fifty cents for each and every tide, to be left to the Captain's option to employ Pilot for such services.

ANGUS BRIEN,
GEO. HOWATT,
Pilot Commissioners.

51. All applications for Private Bills, properly the subjects of legislation by the Parliament of Canada, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railroad, Turnpike Road or Telegraph Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam or Slide, or other like work; the granting the right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular Trade or Calling, or of any Banking or other Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for the granting to any individual or individuals, any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which, in its operation, would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community; or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act, shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and (except in the case of existing corporations) signed by, or on behalf of the applicants, to be published as follows, viz:

In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, in the English and French languages, and in one newspaper in the English, and in one in the French language in the District affected, or in both languages in one paper, if there be but one in the said District, or if there be no paper published therein, then, in both languages, in a paper in the nearest District, in which a newspaper is published.

In any other Province.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, and in one newspaper published in the County, or Union of Counties affected, or if there be no paper published therein, then in a newspaper in the nearest County in which a newspaper is published. Such Notices to be continued in each case, for a period of two months during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition. And copies of the newspapers containing the first and last insertion of such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of each House.

When a Petition is for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, the petitioner or petitioners, upon giving the notice prescribed by the preceding Rule, shall also, at the same time, and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask; the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and whether they intend to erect a drawbridge, and the dimensions of the same.

Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall, eight days before the meeting of Parliament, deposit with the Clerk of the House, in which the bill is to originate, a copy of such bill in the English or French language, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same—600 copies to be printed in English, and 200 copies in French—the translation to be done by the officers of the House, and the printing by the contractor. The applicant shall be also required to pay the accountant of the House a sum of $200 and the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes, and lodge the receipt of the same with the Clerk of the Committee to which such Bill is referred—such payment to be made immediately after the second reading, and before the consideration of the Bill by such Committee.

M., avec le cérémonial ordinaire, à la Chambre du Sénat, et ayant pris Son Siége sur le Trône, SON EXCELLENCE a requis la présence de la Chambre des Communes. Après quoi, il a plu à SON EXCELLENCE de faire le DISCOURS suivant :

DISCOURS.

Honorables Messieurs du Sénat :

Messieurs de la Chambre des Communes.

En me présentant pour la première fois devant le Parlement du Canada, je désire exprimer le plaisir que j'éprouve d'avoir été appelé à la haute et importante fonction que je remplis maintenant, et vous assurer de l'entière satisfaction avec laquelle je viens demander votre concours et votre aide.

Je témoigne ma profonde reconnaissance pour la réception dont j'ai été l'objet moi-même comme représentant de Sa Majesté, et j'ai le devoir, d'après l'ordre de la Reine, de transmettre, par votre intermédiaire, au peuple du Canada, les remercîments de Sa Majesté pour le loyal, généreux et sympathique accueil fait par lui à sa fille.

Les produits et les objets manufacturés envoyés par le Canada à la Grande Exposition internationale de Paris, l'année dernière, ont beaucoup attiré l'attention, et l'on croit que ce fait aura des conséquences favorables pour le commerce du Canada avec l'Europe. Je vous félicite de ce succès, qui doit être, en grande partie, attribué aux bienveillants et incessants efforts de Son Altesse Royale le Prince de Galles comme président de la section Britannique. Le rapport du commissaire canadien vous sera communiqué, dès qu'il aura été reçu.

J'ai le plaisir de vous informer que la somme accordée pour les droits de pêcheries, d'après le traité de Washington, a été payée par les Etats-Unis, et que le gouvernement de Sa Majesté a réglé avec le Canada et Terreneuve leur part respective de l'indemnité. Les documents concernant cette affaire vous seront soumis. L'important commerce du bétail vivant entre le Canada et l'Angleterre, commerce qui prend un rapide accroissement, a été sérieusement menacé par l'apparition de la pleuro-pneumonie dans différentes parties des Etats-Unis. Pour prévenir l'invasion de la contagion en Canada, et l'interruption du commerce qui s'en serait suivie, j'ai fait rendre, par application de l'acte de 1869, relatif aux maladies contagieuses qui attaquent les animaux, une ordonnance prohibant l'importation ou introduction en Canada des bestiaux américains, pour une courte durée. On espère que la maladie sera détruite avant longtemps aux Etats-Unis et que la nécessité de continuer la prohibition disparaîtra en conséquence. Votre attention sera appelée sur un amendement à faire à l'acte que je viens de mentionner.

Mon gouvernement a entamé, avec l'approbation de Sa Majesté, des négociations tendant au développement du Commerce Canadien avec la France et l'Espagne, ainsi qu'avec leurs colonies respectives. J'espère pouvoir vous communiquer le résultat de ces négociations pendant la présente session.

Mon gouvernement se propose de presser avec la plus grande vigueur l'exécution du chemin de fer Canadien du Pacifique, et de satisfaire ainsi à l'attente raisonnable de la Colombie-Britannique. En donnant suite à cette intention, il est nécessaire d'avoir égard à la situation financière du pays. Une communication par rail a été établie entre le Manitoba et le réseau des chemins de fer américains au moyen de la jonction, opérée à St. Vincent, de l'embranchement Pembina de notre chemin de fer avec la ligne de St. Paul au Pacifique. Cette partie de notre grande ligne qui va de la Rivière aux-Anglais à Kéwatin, se donne maintenant à l'entreprise, et on en hâtera la confection afin de relier au plutôt le lac Supérieur au grand Nord-Ouest.

Un bill à l'effet d'amender et de refondre les actes concernant les timbres, sera soumis à votre examen, ainsi qu'une mesure portant modification à l'acte relatif aux poids et mesures.

Le recensement décennal doit avoir lieu en 1881. Je crois opportun qu'une mesure à ce sujet soit passé pendant la présente session, pour donner amplement le temps de faire les préparatifs et dispositions préliminaires, et pour s'assurer que le recensement sera exécuté avec autant d'exactitude et d'économie que possible. Relativement à ce sujet, il peut être bon de considérer la convenance de pourvoir à quelque moyen de recueillir des statistiques vitales, criminelles et générales, et de les comparer.

Il vous sera soumis un bill pour la ré-organisation de certains départements du gouvernement; des mesures relatives à l'arpentage et à l'administration des terres fédérales, à la police à cheval, au Département des Postes, et une mesure à l'effet d'amender en quelques points les lois concernant les Sauvages. Il vous sera soumis de plus une mesure ayant pour objet de transférer à Sa Majesté, à l'usage du Canada, la propriété de terrains de l'artillerie et de l'amirauté dans les provinces de la Nouvelle-Ecosse et du Nouveau-Brunswick.

Messieurs de la Chambre des Communes :

Le budget pour l'année prochaine vous sera présenté sous peu. En le préparant, on a apporté toute l'économie compatible avec l'efficacité du service public. Je regrette que les recettes versées au trésor, et provenant des sources ordinaires, continuent à être insuffisantes pour satisfaire aux dépenses à la charge du revenu consolidé. Je ne doute pas que vous ne pensiez avec moi qu'il n'est point désirable de voir nos finances rester plus longtemps dans cette situation. En appliquant la plus stricte économie à la dépense publique et en remaniant le tarif en vue d'accroître le revenu, et tout à la fois de développer et d'encourager les diverses industries canadiennes, vous pourrez, j'espère, rétablir l'équilibre entre le revenu et la dépense, et aider à faire cesser la crise commerciale et économique qui malheureusement dure encore parmi nous.

J'ai ordonné que les comptes publics de l'année fiscale dernière fussent mis sous vos yeux.

Honorables Messieurs du Sénat :

Messieurs de la Chambre des Communes :

Le Parlement a reconnu l'importance qu'il y avait d'offrir au public un moyen de déposer en sûreté ses épargnes, en prenant des dispositions pour lui permettre de les placer entre les mains du gouvernement à un taux raisonnable d'intérêt. Il vous conviendra peut-être de considérer jusqu'à quel point il serait possible d'offrir la même garantie, et le même encouragement aux personnes ayant le désir de pourvoir, par une assurance sur leur vie aux besoins de ceux qui dépendent d'elles.

Vous donnerez, je n'en doute point, toute votre attention aux importants sujets que j'indique et aux intérêts généraux du pays.

PROCLAMATIONS.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable ; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société ; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit :

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba :

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district ; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces :

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires ; et mentionner de plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français ; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

72. Quiconque a l'intention de demander un bill de divorce, doit donner avis de son intention, et spécifier d'avec qui et pour quelle cause il veut divorcer. L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation ; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y parait pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu ; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.

This judicial document shall be accompanied, if possible, by a description of the person claimed, and any other information or particulars that may serve to identify him.

These documents shall be communicated by the Minister for Foreign Affairs to the Minister of Grace and Justice, by whose Department, after examining the documents and finding that there is reason for the extradition, a Royal Order will be issued granting it, and directing the arrest of the person claimed and his delivery to the British authorities.

In virtue of the said Royal Order the Minister of the Interior (Ministro de la Gobernacion) will adopt the fitting measures for the arrest of the fugitive, and when this has taken place, the person claimed shall be placed at the disposal of the Diplomatic Representative who has demanded his extradition, and he shall be taken to the part of the frontier or to the seaport where the Agent appointed for the purpose by Her Britannic Majesty's Government is ready to take charge of him.

In case the documents furnished by the said Government for the identification of the person claimed or the information obtained by the Spanish authorities for the same purpose, should be considered insufficient, immediate notice thereof shall be given to the Diplomatic Representative of Great Britain, and the person under arrest shall be detained until the British Government shall have furnished fresh evidence to prove his identity or to clear up any other difficulty relative to the examination and decision of the affair.

ARTICLE VI.

In the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, other than the Colonies or Foreign Possessions of Her Majesty, the manner of proceeding, in order to demand and obtain extradition, shall be as follows — :

(A.) In the case of a person accused—The requisition for the surrender shall be made to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs by the Diplomatic Representative of His Majesty the King of Spain. The said demand shall be accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other equivalent judicial document, issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take cognizance of the acts charged against the accused in Spain, and duly authenticated depositions or statements taken on oath before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said acts, and containing a description of the person claimed, and any particulars which may serve to identify him.

The Principal Secretary of State shall transmit such documents to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall then, by order under his hand and seal, signify to some Police Magistrate in London that such requisition has been made, and require him, if there be due cause, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive. On the receipt of such order from the Secretary of State, and on the production of such evidence as would, in the opinion of the Magistrate, justify the issue of the warrant if the crime had been committed in the United Kingdom, he shall issue his warrant accordingly.

When the person claimed shall have been apprehended, he shall be brought before the Magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other Police Magistrate in London. If the evidence to be then produced shall be such as to justify, according to the law of England, the committal for trial of the prisoner, if the crime of which he is accused had been committed in the United Kingdom, the Police Magistrate shall commit him to prison to await the warrant of the Secretary of State for his surrender; sending immediately to the Secretary of State a certificate of the committal and a report upon the case.

After the expiration of a period from the committal of the prisoner, which shall never be less than fifteen days, the Secretary of State shall, by order under his hand and seal, order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as may be duly authorized to receive him on the part of the Spanish Government.

(B.) In the case of a person convicted—The course of proceeding shall be the same as above indicated, except that the warrant to be transmitted by the Diplomatic Representative of Spain in support of his requisition shall clearly set forth the crime or offence of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the place and date of his conviction.

The evidence to be produced before the Police Magistrate shall be such as would, according to the law of England, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged.

(C.) Persons convicted by judgment in default or arrêt de contumace, shall be, in the matter of extradition, considered as persons accused, and, as such, be surrendered.

(D.) After the Police Magistrate shall have committed the accused or convicted person to prison to await the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, such person shall have the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus; if he should so apply, his surrender must be deferred until after the decision of the Court upon the return to the writ, and even then can only take place if the decision is adverse to the applicant. In the latter case the Court may at once order his delivery to the person authorized to receive him, without the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, or commit him to prison to await such order.

ARTICLE VII.

Warrants, depositions, or statements on oath, issued or taken in the dominions of either of the two High Contracting Parties, and copies thereof, and certificates of or judicial documents stating the facts of conviction, shall be received in evidence in proceedings in the dominions of the other, if purporting to be signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the country where they were issued or taken, provided such warrants, depositions, statements, copies, certificates, and judicial documents are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE VIII.

A fugitive criminal may be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the authority issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the person convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which the Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority exercises jurisdiction; provided, however, that, in the United Kingdom, the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London. He shall, in accordance with this Article, be discharged, as well in Spain as in the United Kingdom, if, within the term of thirty days, a requisition for extradition shall not have been made by the Diplomatic Agent of his country, in accordance with the stipulations of this Treaty.

The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offences specified in this Treaty, and committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE IX.

If the fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison be not surrendered and conveyed away within two months after such committal, or within two months after the adverse decision of the Court upon the return to a writ of habeas corpus in the United Kingdom, he shall be discharged from custody, unless sufficient cause be shown to the contrary.

ARTICLE X.

In the Provinces beyond sea, Colonies and other Possessions beyond sea of the two High Contracting Parties, the manner of proceeding shall be as follows:—

The requisition for extradition of the fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in an over-sea Province, Colony, or Possession of either of the two Contracting Parties, shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Province, Colony or Possession by the chief Consular Officer of the other State in such Province, Colony, or Possession; or, if the fugitive has escaped from an over-sea Province, Colony, or Possession of the State on whose behalf the extradition is demanded, by the Governor or chief authority of such Province, Colony, or Possession.

In these cases the provisions of this Treaty shall be observed as far as possible by the respective Governors or chief authorities, who, however, shall be at liberty to grant the extradition or to refer the decision of the matter to the Governments of their respective countries.

ARTICLE XI.

In cases where it may be necessary, the Spanish Government shall be represented at the English Courts by the Law Officers of the Crown, and the English Government in the Spanish Court by the Public Prosecutor (Ministerio Fiscal.)

The respective Governments will give assistance to the Diplomatic Representatives who claim their intervention for the custody and security of the persons subject to extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

The claim for extradition shall not be complied with if the individual claimed has been already tried for the same offence in the country whence the extradition is demanded, or if, since the commission of the acts charged, the accusation or the conviction, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of that country.

ARTICLE XIII.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties, in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other powers, on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date; unless any other arrangement should exist between the different Governments to determine the preference, either on account of the gravity of the crime or offence, or for any other reason.

ARTICLE XIV.

If the individual claimed should be under prosecution, or have been condemned for a crime or offence committed in the country where he may have taken refuge, his surrender may be deferred until he shall have been set at liberty in due course of law.

In case he should be proceeded against or detained in such country, on account of obligations contracted towards private individuals, the extradition shall nevertheless take place.

ARTICLE XV.

Every article found in the possession of the individual claimed at the time of his arrest, shall, if the competent authority so decide, be seized, in order to be delivered up with his person at the time when the extradition takes place. Such delivery shall not be limited to the property or articles obtained by stealing or by fraudulent bankruptcy, but shall extend to every thing that may serve as proof of the crime or offence, and shall take place even when the extradition, after having been granted, cannot be carried out by reason of the escape or death of the individual claimed.

The rights of third parties with regard to the said property or articles are nevertheless reserved.

ARTICLE XVI.

The High Contracting Parties renounce any claim for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred by them in the arrest and maintenance of the person to be surrendered, and his conveyance as far as the frontier; they reciprocally agree to bear such expenses themselves.

ARTICLE XVII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as possible.

It shall come into operation ten days after its publication, in conformity with the laws of the respective countries, and each of the Contracting Parties may at any time terminate the Treaty on giving to the other six months' notice of its intention to do so.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at London, the fourth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.) SALISBURY.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at London on the twenty-first instant:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the King of Spain.

GENERAL NOTICES AND CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE. ALL CHARGES PAYABLE ON DELIVERY OF GOODS.

1. Smalls are to be charged the same as 100 lbs. first-class rates, but no less charge than 25 cents will be made.

2. Articles will not be received for transportation unless properly packed in suitable Casks, Boxes, Bales, Vessels, or packages, and plainly marked and directed.

3. This Company will not be accountable for any article, unless the same be signed for as received by a duly authorized agent. Agents must not give receipts reading in "good order," but in "apparent good order."

4. Agents will not sign receipts for the delivery of any property at any place beyond the point to which the freight is billed. All articles marked at "owner's risk" in the Classification must be so receipted for by Agents.

5. Articles that the Agents do not consider worth the charges at forced sale, will not be taken unless the freight on the same is prepaid. Perishable articles will be immediately sold to secure the freight charges if not paid when such articles arrive at the Railway station, or are offered for delivery.

6. No Agent or other employee of this Company is authorized to take charge of Bank Notes, Money or other valuable papers.

7. No responsibility will be assumed by this Company for the correctness of any monies charged as "Back Charges" or "Paid Outs" on freight, &c., by other roads, companies or individuals; nor will the cost of the articles shipped be charged on the goods, but the charges for transportation only.

8. No allowance will be made for damage on any freight, unless the attention of the Agent is called to it, and the extent of the damages determined upon before the freight leaves the Company's Depots.

9. When an invoice covers a variety of articles, as a lot of Furniture, &c., or car loads of grain or other freight, each separate piece must be properly marked and numbered, and the quantities given, and a bill of particulars furnished by the Consignor in duplicate, one to be receipted and the other to go with the Way Bill.

10. When it is absolutely necessary for Agents to receive the count or measure from the shippers or consignors of freight, they must in all cases give receipts for, and Way-Bill it as "Shippers Count," and the Company will not be responsible for short count, not for any deficiency in the weight or measure of grain, &c., nor for loss of deficiency, weight, number or measure of Lumber or Timber carried by the car load.

11. Coal Oil, Varnish, Spirits of Turpentine, Benzine, Camphor or any other burning fluid or like freight must not be accepted for carriage in tin packages, unless such packages are securely boxed in wood. Senders of any dangerous article will be held accountable for any damage arising therefrom, or thereto, unless the contents are described as such upon the directions marked thereon, that due care may be observed in the loading; and in no case will the Company be liable for the loss of or damage to any such articles; and the Company will only undertake the carriage of Aquafortis, Vitriol, Friction Matches, or Gunpowder on special terms to be superadded to these conditions.

12. All articles will be at the owner's risk at the several Way Stations and Platforms, where Depot buildings have not yet been established by the Company, from the moment such articles are delivered as directed or marked, or until taken into the cars, as the case may be. And no article destined for such points will be received unless the freight is prepaid; and unless specially arranged to the contrary, the putting out of such articles at such stations or platforms will be a delivery, whether any one is there ready to receive or not.

13. Nor will this Company be responsible for the loss of, or damage done to, money in cash, or Bills, or Promissory Notes, or Securities for Money, or Jewellery, Trinkets, Rings, Precious Stones, Bullion, Gold and Silver, manufactured or unmanufactured, Gold and Silver Plate, or plated articles, Clocks, Watches, Timepieces, Marbles, Laces, Furs, Silks, in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, and whether wrought up or not with other materials, Writings, Title Deeds, Prints, Paintings, Maps, Engravings, Pictures, Stamps or other valuables; nor for damage done to China, Glass, Wearing Apparel, Musical Instruments, Furniture, Toys, Castings, or any other such hazardous or brittle articles, in packages or otherwise.

14. Nor for damages occasioned by delays from storms, accidents or unavoidable causes, or for damages from fire, heat, frost, or decay of perishable articles, or from civil commotion.

15. Nor for loss or damage of any package insufficiently packed, marked, directed or described, containing a variety of articles liable, by breaking, to damage each other, or other articles; nor for Leakage, arising from bad casks or bad cooperage or from fermentation.

16. Nor for loss or damage done to goods put into returned Wrappers or Boxes, or packages described as Empties; nor for goods left until called for, or to order, or warehoused for the convenience of the parties to whom they belong, or by, or to whom they are consigned.

17. When goods are intended, after being conveyed upon this Railway, to be forwarded by some other Company or carrier to their final destination, the duplicate receipts furnished by the consignor, must specify the same, and the articles be marked accordingly. This Company will not be responsible for such articles after they are so delivered.

18. Carriages, when not boxed, will be taken only at owners risk; and they must be securely protected or covered, so that there will be no liability to injury by fire, weather or chafing.

19. No goods will be delivered until the freight and charges thereon are paid; and if not paid within six weeks after arrival they will be sold and the proceeds applied towards satisfaction of such claims and expenses.

20. All articles, except when it is otherwise specially provided, will be charged by weight, either actual or estimated.

21. All property of every description is at owner's risk from fire (after having been delivered on the Company's station grounds,) and from all other loss or injuries, except such as may arise from negligence of the Company's Agents.

22. All articles of freight arriving at their place of destination must be taken away within forty-eight hours—the Company reserving the right of charging storage on the same, or placing the same in store at the risk and expense of the owner, if they see fit, after the lapse of that time.

23. Demurrage at the rate of two dollars per car per day will be charged on all cars not unloaded within twenty-four hours after arriving, unless a special agreement to the contrary be made in writing. And for this demurrage the Company shall have the same lien as for freight.

24. Ten tons of 2000 lbs. per ton shall be considered a full car load, and any excess over ten tons will be charged double rates.

25. No part of any consignment of goods will be billed as "part lot," "more to go," &c., and no part of any consignment of goods will be delivered until the charges on the whole consignment be paid, and the proper receipts taken therefor.

26. Empties returned, not otherwise specified, all kinds, taken at same rate per 100 lbs. actual weight, as charged when carried over the road when full, but must be prepaid.

27. DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Rules relating to Notices for Private Bills.

51. All applications for Private Bills, properly the subjects of legislation by the Parliament of Canada, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railroad, Turnpike Road or Telegraph Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam or Slide, or other like work; the granting the right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular Trade or Calling, or of any Banking or other Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for the granting to any individual or individuals, any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which, in its operation, would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community; or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act, shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and (except in the case of existing corporations) signed by, or on behalf of the applicants, to be published as follows, viz:

In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, in the English and French languages, and in one newspaper in the English, and in one in the French language in the District affected, or in both languages in one paper, if there be but one in the said District, or if there be no paper published therein, then, in both languages, in a paper in the nearest District, in which a newspaper is published.

In any other Province.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, and in one newspaper published in the County, or Union of Counties affected, or if there be no paper published therein, then in a newspaper in the nearest County in which a newspaper is published. Such Notices to be continued in each case, for a period of two months during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition. And copies of the newspapers containing the first and last insertion of such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of each House.

When a Petition is for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, the petitioner or petitioners, upon giving the notice prescribed by the preceding Rule, shall also, at the same time, and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask; the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and whether they intend to erect a drawbridge, and the dimensions of the same.

Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall, eight days before the meeting of Parliament, deposit with the Clerk of the House, in which the bill is to originate, a copy of such bill in the English or French language, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same—600 copies to be printed in English, and 200 copies in French—the translation to be done by the officers of the House, and the printing by the contractor. The applicant shall be also required to pay the accountant of the House a sum of $200 and the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes, and lodge the receipt of the same with the Clerk of the Committee to which such Bill is referred—such payment to be made immediately after the second reading, and before the consideration of the Bill by such Committee.

No Petition for a Private Bill is received by either House after the first ten days of the session.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable ; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société ; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit :

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba :

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district ; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces :

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires ; et mentionner de plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français ; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement apres la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation ; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y parait pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu ; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.

ARTICLE V.

In the States of His Majesty the King of Spain, excepting the provinces or possessions beyond sea, the proceedings for demanding and obtaining the extradition shall be as follows:—

The Diplomatic Representative of Great Britain shall send to the Minister for Foreign Affairs (Ministro de Estado) with the demand for extradition an authenticated and legalised copy of the sentence or of the warrant of arrest against the person accused, clearly showing the crime or offence for which proceedings are taken against the fugitive. This judicial document shall be accompanied, if possible, by a description of the person claimed, and any other information or particulars that may serve to identify him.

These documents shall be communicated by the Minister for Foreign Affairs to the Minister of Grace and Justice, by whose Department, after examining the documents and finding that there is reason for the extradition, a Royal Order will be issued granting it, and directing the arrest of the person claimed and his delivery to the British authorities

In virtue of the said Royal Order the Minister of the Interior (Ministro de la Gobernacion) will adopt the fitting measures for the arrest of the fugitive, and when this has taken place, the person claimed shall be placed at the disposal of the Diplomatic Representative who has demanded his extradition, and he shall be taken to the part of the frontier or to the seaport where the Agent appointed for the purpose by Her Britannic Majesty's Government is ready to take charge of him.

In case the documents furnished by the said Government for the identification of the person claimed or the information obtained by the Spanish authorities for the same purpose, should be considered insufficient, immediate notice thereof shall be given to the Diplomatic Representative of Great Britain, and the person under arrest shall be detained until the British Government shall have furnished fresh evidence to prove his identity or to clear up any other difficulty relative to the examination and decision of the affair.

ARTICLE VI.

In the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, other than the Colonies or Foreign Possessions of Her Majesty, the manner of proceeding, in order to demand and obtain extradition, shall be as follows — :

(A.) In the case of a person accused—The requisition for the surrender shall be made to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs by the Diplomatic Representative of His Majesty the King of Spain. The said demand shall be accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other equivalent judicial document, issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take cognizance of the acts charged against the accused in Spain, and duly authenticated depositions or statements taken on oath before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said acts, and containing a description of the person claimed, and any particulars which may serve to identify him.

The Principal Secretary of State shall transmit such documents to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall then, by order under his hand and seal, signify to some Police Magistrate in London that such requisition has been made, and require him, if there be due cause, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive. On the receipt of such order from the Secretary of State, and on the production of such evidence as would, in the opinion of the Magistrate, justify the issue of the warrant if the crime had been committed in the United Kingdom, he shall issue his warrant accordingly.

When the person claimed shall have been apprehended, he shall be brought before the Magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other Police Magistrate in London. If the evidence to be then produced shall be such as to justify, according to the law of England, the committal for trial of the prisoner, if the crime of which he is accused had been committed in the United Kingdom, the Police Magistrate shall commit him to prison to await the warrant of the Secretary of State for his surrender; sending immediately to the Secretary of State a certificate of the committal and a report upon the case.

After the expiration of a period from the committal of the prisoner, which shall never be less than fifteen days, the Secretary of State shall, by order under his hand and seal, order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as may be duly authorized to receive him on the part of the Spanish Government.

(B.) In the case of a person convicted—The course of proceeding shall be the same as above indicated, except that the warrant to be transmitted by the Diplomatic Representative of Spain in support of his requisition shall clearly set forth the crime or offence of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the place and date of his conviction.

The evidence to be produced before the Police Magistrate shall be such as would, according to the law of England, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged.

(C.) Persons convicted by judgment in default or arrêt de contumace, shall be, in the matter of extradition, considered as persons accused, and, as such, be surrendered.

(D.) After the Police Magistrate shall have committed the accused or convicted person to prison to await the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, such person shall have the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus; if he should so apply, his surrender must be deferred until after the decision of the Court upon the return to the writ, and even then can only take place if the decision is adverse to the applicant. In the latter case the Court may at once order his delivery to the person authorized to receive him, without the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, or commit him to prison to await such order.

ARTICLE VII.

Warrants, depositions, or statements on oath, issued or taken in the dominions of either of the two High Contracting Parties, and copies thereof, and certificates of or judicial documents stating the facts of conviction, shall be received in evidence in proceedings in the dominions of the other, if purporting to be signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the country where they were issued or taken, provided such warrants, depositions, statements, copies, certificates, and judicial documents are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE VIII.

A fugitive criminal may be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the authority issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the person convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which the Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority exercises jurisdiction; provided, however, that, in the United Kingdom, the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London. He shall, in accordance with this Article, be discharged, as well in Spain as in the United Kingdom, if, within the term of thirty days, a requisition for extradition shall not have been made by the Diplomatic Agent of his country, in accordance with the stipulations of this Treaty.

The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offences specified in this Treaty, and committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE IX.

If the fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison be not surrendered and conveyed away within two months after such committal, or within two months after the adverse decision of the Court upon the return to a writ of habeas corpus in the United Kingdom, he shall be discharged from custody, unless sufficient cause be shown to the contrary.

ARTICLE X.

In the Provinces beyond sea, Colonies and other Possessions beyond sea of the two High Contracting Parties, the manner of proceeding shall be as follows:—

The requisition for extradition of the fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in an over-sea Province, Colony, or Possession of either of the two Contracting Parties, shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Province, Colony or Possession by the chief Consular Officer of the other State in such Province, Colony, or Possession; or, if the fugitive has escaped from an over-sea Province, Colony, or Possession of the State on whose behalf the extradition is demanded, by the Governor or chief authority of such Province, Colony, or Possession.

In these cases the provisions of this Treaty shall be observed as far as possible by the respective Governors or chief authorities, who, however, shall be at liberty to grant the extradition or to refer the decision of the matter to the Governments of their respective countries.

ARTICLE XI.

In cases where it may be necessary, the Spanish Government shall be represented at the English Courts by the Law Officers of the Crown, and the English Government in the Spanish Court by the Public Prosecutor (Ministerio Fiscal.)

The respective Governments will give assistance to the Diplomatic Representatives who claim their intervention for the custody and security of the persons subject to extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

The claim for extradition shall not be complied with if the individual claimed has been already tried for the same offence in the country whence the extradition is demanded, or if, since the commission of the acts charged, the accusation or the conviction, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of that country

ARTICLE XIII.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties, in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other powers, on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date; unless any other arrangement should exist between the different Governments to determine the preference, either on account of the gravity of the crime or offence, or for any other reason.

ARTICLE XIV.

If the individual claimed should be under prosecution, or have been condemned for a crime or offence committed in the country where he may have taken refuge, his surrender may be deferred until he shall have been set at liberty in due course of law.

In case he should be proceeded against or detained in such country, on account of obligations contracted towards private individuals, the extradition shall nevertheless take place.

ARTICLE XV.

Every article found in the possession of the individual claimed at the time of his arrest, shall, if the competent authority so decide, be seized, in order to be delivered up with his person at the time when the extradition takes place. Such delivery shall not be limited to the property or articles obtained by stealing or by fraudulent bankruptcy, but shall extend to every thing that may serve as proof of the crime or offence, and shall take place even when the extradition, after having been granted, cannot be carried out by reason of the escape or death of the individual claimed.

The rights of third parties with regard to the said property or articles are nevertheless reserved.

ARTICLE XVI.

The High Contracting Parties renounce any claim for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred by them in the arrest and maintenance of the person to be surrendered, and his conveyance as far as the frontier; they reciprocally agree to bear such expenses themselves.

ARTICLE XVII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as possible.

It shall come into operation ten days after its publication, in conformity with the laws of the respective countries, and each of the Contracting Parties may at any time terminate the Treaty on giving to the other six months' notice of its intention to do so.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at London, the fourth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.) SALISBURY.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at London on the twenty-first instant:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the King of Spain.

14. Any pilot taking charge of any inward bound vessel shall exhibit his license and also a copy of these Regulations to the master of such vessel for his perusal.

51. All applications for Private Bills, properly the subjects of legislation by the Parliament of Canada, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railroad, Turnpike Road or Telegraph Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam or Slide, or other like work; the granting the right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular Trade or Calling, or of any Banking or other Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for the granting to any individual or individuals, any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which, in its operation, would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community; or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act, shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and (except in the case of existing corporations) signed by, or on behalf of the applicants, to be published as follows, viz:

In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, in the English and French languages, and in one newspaper in the English, and in one in the French language in the District affected, or in both languages in one paper, if there be but one in the said District, or if there be no paper published therein, then, in both languages, in a paper in the nearest District, in which a newspaper is published.

In any other Province.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, and in one newspaper published in the County, or Union of Counties affected, or if there be no paper published therein, then in a newspaper in the nearest County in which a newspaper is published. Such Notices to be continued in each case, for a period of two months during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition. And copies of the newspapers containing the first and last insertion of such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of each House.

When a Petition is for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, the petitioner or petitioners, upon giving the notice prescribed by the preceding Rule, shall also, at the same time, and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask; the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and whether they intend to erect a drawbridge, and the dimensions of the same.

Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall, eight days before the meeting of Parliament, deposit with the Clerk of the House, in which the bill is to originate, a copy of such bill in the English or French language, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same—600 copies to be printed in English, and 200 copies in French—the translation to be done by the officers of the House, and the printing by the contractor. The applicant shall be also required to pay the accountant of the House a sum of $200 and the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes, and lodge the receipt of the same with the Clerk of the Committee to which such Bill is referred—such payment to be made immediately after the second reading, and before the consideration of the Bill by such Committee.

PRÉSENT :

Sa Très Excellente Majesté la Reine en Conseil.

ATTENDU que par un acte du parlement, fait et passé dans la session du parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa présente Majesté, intitulé, "Un acte à l'effet d'amender la loi concernant l'extradition des criminels," et que par un acte du parlement fait et passé dans la session du parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa présente Majesté, intitulé : "Un acte à l'effet d'amender l'acte d'extradition de 1870," il a été entre autre choses déerété que, quant une convention a été faite avec un Etat étranger concernant la remise à tel Etat de tout accusé fugitif, Sa Majesté peut par le même ordre ou un ordre subséquent, limiter l'application de l'ordre, et le restreindre aux criminels fugitifs qui se trouvent ou qui sont soupçonnés se trouver dans la partie des domaines de Sa Majesté spécifiée dans l'ordre, et en rendre l'application sujette à telles conditions, exceptions et considérations qu'elle pourra juger désirables.

Et attendu qu'un traité a été conclu le quatre juin mil huit cent soixante-dix-huit entre Sa Majesté et le roi d'Espagne pour l'extradition mutuelle des criminels fugitifs, lequel traité est conçu dans les termes suivants :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et de l'Irlande, et Sa Majesté le Roi d'Espagne ont jugé qu'il était désirable, dans le but de mieux administrer la justice et d'assurer la répression des crimes, que les personnes prévenues ou convaincues des crimes ci-après énumérés, et ayant voulu échapper à la vindicte des lois, fussent, dans certaines circonstances, extradées réciproquement, et elles ont résolu de conclure le présent traité, et elles ont nommé leurs plénipotentiaires, savoir :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et de l'Irlande, le Très-Honorable Robert Arthur Talbot Gascoyne Cecil, Marquis et Comte de Salisbury, le Vicomte Cranborne, Dorset et le Baron Cecil d'Essendine, un pair du Royaume-Uni, un membre du Très-Honorable Conseil Privé de Sa Majesté, son principal secrétaire d'Etat pour les affaires étrangères :—

goire le Grand, Chevalier de première classe de l'ordre royal de l'Aigle Rouge de la Prusse, Chevalier Grand-Croix des ordres royaux de la Couronne d'Italie, de Frédéric de Wurtemburg, et d'Albert le Vaillant de la Saxe ; des grands ordres ducaux de Philippe le Magnanime d'Hesse-Darmstadt, du Faucon Blanc de Saxe-Weimar, de la Couronne de Vandalie de Mecklembourg-Schwerin, et de l'ordre ducal d'Alphonse de Nassau ; Chevalier Grand-Croix du Lion et du Soleil de Perse, etc., son envoyé extraordinaire et ministre plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et de l'Irlande.

Lesquels, après s'être communiqués leurs pleins pouvoirs respectifs, trouvés en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des articles suivants :—

ARTICLE I.

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et de l'Irlande s'engage à livrer, dans les circonstances et aux conditions stipulées dans le présent traité, tous individus, et Sa Majesté le Roi d'Espagne s'engage à livrer, dans les mêmes circonstances et conditions, tous individus (à la seule exception de leurs nationaux), prévenus ou condamnés par les tribunaux de l'une des deux hautes parties contractantes, des crimes et délits énumérés dans l'article second, commis dans le territoire de l'une d'elles, et qui seront trouvés dans le territoire de l'autre.

22. La traite des esclaves de façon à constituer un délit contre les lois des deux pays.

L'extradition sera aussi accordée pour participation dans aucun de ces crimes comme étant connexe avant ou après la perpétration, pourvu que cette participation soit punissable par les lois des deux parties contractantes.

ARTICLE III.

Le présent traité s'appliquera aux crimes et délits commis avant la passation du traité ; mais aucun individu extradé ne sera poursuivi pour crime ou délit antérieur à l'extradition, autre que le crime pour lequel son extradition a été accordée.

ARTICLE IV.

Aucun individu ne sera livré si le délit au sujet auquel son extradition est demandée, est d'un caractère politique, ou s'il prouve, à la satisfaction de l'autorité compétente de l'Etat dans lequel il est, que la demande de son extradition a été faite dans le but de la poursuivre ou de le punir pour un délit politique.

ARTICLE V.

Dans les Etats de Sa Majesté le roi d'Espagne, sauf les provinces ou possessions au-delà de la mer, la demande d'extradition devra se faire comme suit :

Le représentant diplomatique de la Grande-Bretagne enverra au ministre des Affaires Etrangères (Ministro de Estado), avec la demande de l'extradition, une copie authentique et légalisée du jugement de condamnation ou de l'arrêt porté contre l'accusé, indiquant clairement, le crime ou délit qui a motivé la demande d'extradition. Les pièces seront, autant que possible, accompagnées du signalement de l'individu réclamé, et de tous les renseignements qui pourront faciliter son identification. Ces documents seront communiqués par le ministre des Affaires Etrangères au ministre de Grâce et de Justice, par le département duquel, après examen des faits et constatation qu'il y a lieu de demander l'extradition, un ordre royal sera émis accordant l'extradition et décrétant l'arrestation de l'individu réclamé et sa remise aux autorités anglaises.

En vertu du dit ordre royal le ministre de l'Intérieur (Ministro de la Gobernation) adoptera les mesures nécessaires pour l'arrestation du fugitif, et cela fait, l'individu réclamé sera mis à la disposition du représentant diplomatique qui a demandé son extradition, et il sera conduit à l'endroit de la frontière ou au port de mer où l'agent nommé à cet effet par le gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique sera prêt à en prendre soin.

Dans le cas où les pièces communiquées par le gouvernement pour l'identification de l'individu réclamé ou les renseignements obtenus par les autorités espagnoles pour le même objet seraient jugées insuffisantes, avis immédiat en sera donné au représentant diplomatique de la Grande-Bretagne, et l'individu arrêté sera détenu jusqu'à ce que le gouvernement anglais ait obtenu de nouvelles preuves pour établir son identification ou pour faire disparaître toute difficulté relative à l'examen et à la décision de l'affaire.

ARTICLE VI.

Dans les possessions de Sa Majesté Britannique, autres que les colonies ou les possessions étrangères

de Sa Majesté, la demande d'extradition devra se faire comme suit :—

Le principal secrétaire d'Etat transmettra ces pièces au principal secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique au département de l'Intérieur, qui, par un ordre sous son seing et sceau, signifiera à un magistrat de police à Londres que cette demande a été faite, et lui enjoindra, s'il y a lieu, d'émettre son mandat pour l'appréhension du fugitif sur la réception de cet ordre du secrétaire d'Etat, et sur la production des faits qui seraient suffisants dans l'opinion du magistrat, pour justifier l'émission du mandat si le crime a été commis dans le Royaume-Uni, il émettra son mandat en conséquence.

Quand l'individu réclamé aura été appréhendé, il sera traduit devant le magistrat qui a décerné le mandat ou devant un autre magistrat de police à Londres.

Si les faits alors produits suffisent pour justifier, conformément à la loi d'Angleterre, l'incarcération de l'accusé en attendant son procès, si le crime dont il est prévenu a été commis dans le Royaume-Uni, le magistrat de police l'enverra en prison en attendant le mandat du secrétaire d'Etat, pour son extradition, envoyant immédiatement au secrétaire d'Etat un certificat de l'acte d'incarcération en attendant le procès et un rapport sur le cas.

Après qu'une période d'au moins quinze jours se sera écoulée depuis l'incarcération, le secrétaire d'Etat devra décréter par un ordre sous son seing et sceau, que l'accusé fugitif soit remis à la personne qui pourra être duement autorisée à le recevoir de la part du gouvernement espagnol.

(B) Dans le cas d'un individu condamné,—la procédure sera la même que celle ci-haut indiquée, si ce n'est que le mandat que le représentant diplomatique de l'Espagne doit transmettre à l'appui de sa demande devra indiquer clairement le crime ou le délit pour lequel l'individu réclamé a été condamné, ainsi que la date et le lieu de sa condamnation.

La preuve à faire devant le magistrat de police sera telle qu'elle devrait, conformément à la loi d'Angleterre, établir que le prisonnier a été convaincu du crime dont il est accusé.

(C) Les individus condamnés par jugement en défaut ou arrêt de contumace seront, dans les cas d'extradition, considérés comme des individus accusés et comme tels seront extradés.

(D) Après que le magistrat de police aura envoyé en prison l'individu accusé ou condamné en attendant l'ordre d'un Secrétaire d'Etat pour son extradition, cet individu aura le droit de demander un bref d'habeas corpus ; s'il fait cette demande, son extradition pourra être différée jusqu'après la décision de la cour sur le rapport du bref et elle ne pourra même avoir lieu que si la décision est adverse au demandant. Dans ce cas la cour pourra ordonner de suite son extradition à la personne autorisée à le recevoir, sans l'ordre d'un secrétaire d'Etat pour son extradition, ou l'envoyer en prison en attendant cet ordre.

ARTICLE VII.

Les mandats, dépositions ou déclarations sous serment, lancés ou faits dans les domaines de l'une des deux hautes parties contractantes, et copies d'iceux, et des certificats ou des actes judiciaires indiquant les faits qui ont motivé la condamnation, seront reçus comme preuves dans les procédures instituées dans les domaines de l'autre, s'ils sont censés être signés ou certifiés par un juge, magistrat ou officier du pays où ils ont été émis ou faits, pourvu que ces mandats, dépositions, déclarations, copies, certificats et actes judiciaires soient authentiqués par quelque témoin sous serment, ou qu'ils soient revêtus du sceau officiel du ministre de la Justice ou de quelqu'autre ministre d'Etat.

ARTICLE VIII.

Un malfaiteur fugitif pourra être appréhendé sur un mandat décerné par un magistrat de police, juge de paix, ou autre autorité compétente dans l'un ou l'autre pays, sur telle déclaration ou plainte, et sur telle preuve, ou après telles procédures qui, dans l'opinion de l'autorité décernant le mandat, justifieraient l'émission d'un mandat si le crime a été commis ou si l'individu est condamné dans cette partie des territoires des deux parties contractantes, où le magistrat, juge de paix, ou autre autorité compétente exerce juridiction ; pourvu toutefois que dans le Royaume-Uni, l'accusé soit traduit aussi promptement que possible devant un magistrat de police à Londres. En conformité de cet article il sera mis en liberté, en Espagne, tout comme dans le Royaume-Unis, si, dans une période de trente jours, une demande d'extradition n'a pas été faite par l'agent diplomatique de son pays, en vertu des stipulations de ce traité.

La même règle s'appliquera aux cas des individus prévenus ou convaincus des crimes ou délits mentionnés dans ce traité, et commis sur les hautes mers à bord d'un bâtiment de l'un et l'autre pays, qui pourra se rendre dans un port de l'autre.

ARTICLE IX.

Si le malfaiteur fugitif qui a été envoyé en prison n'est pas extradé et livré dans les deux mois qui suivront son incarcération, ou dans les deux mois qui suivront la décision de la Cour sur le rapport d'un bref d'habeas corpus dans le Royaume-Uni, il sera mis en liberté, à moins qu'on ne prouve qu'il y a lieu d'agir autrement.

ARTICLE X.

Dans les provinces trans-océaniques et autres territoires situés au-delà de la mer de l'une des hautes parties contractantes, le mode de procédure sera le suivant:

La demande d'extradition du malfaiteur fugitif qui s'est réfugié dans une province au-delà de la mer, colonie ou possession de l'une des deux parties contractantes, sera faite au gouverneur ou à l'autorité principale de telle province, colonie ou possession, par le principal officier consulaire de l'autre Etat dans telle province, colonie ou possession ; ou si le fugitif s'est sauvé d'une province trans-océanique, colonie ou possession de l'Etat, en faveur duquel l'extradition est demandée par le gouverneur ou l'autorité principale de telle province, colonie ou possession.

Dans ce cas, les dispositions de ce traité seront observées autant que possible par les gouverneurs respectifs ou les autorités principales, qui, toutefois, seront libres d'accorder l'extradition ou de soumettre la décision de l'affaire aux gouvernements de leurs pays respectifs.

ARTICLE XI.

Dans les cas où cela pourra être nécessaire, le gouvernement espagnol sera représenté devant les tribunaux anglais par les officiers en loi de la Couronne, et le gouvernement anglais devant les tribunaux espagnols par l'officier de justice appelé (Ministerio Fiscal). Les gouvernements respectifs donneront leur concours aux représentants diplomatiques qui réclament leur intervention pour la mise en lieu sûr des individus sujets à extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

La demande de l'extradition sera rejetée si l'individu réclamé a déjà été poursuivi pour le même délit dans le pays où l'extradition est demandée, ou si, depuis la perpétration des actes dont il est accusé, l'accusation ou la condamnation, l'exemption de poursuite ou de punition a été acquise par le laps de temps écoulé conformément aux lois de ce pays.

ARTICLE XIII.

Si l'individu réclamé par l'une des deux hautes parties contractantes, en vertu du présent traité, est aussi réclamé par un ou plusieurs autres pays, à raison de crimes ou délits commis sur leurs territoires respectifs, son extradition sera accordée à l'Etat qui a fait la première demande, à moins qu'il n'ait été pris quelqu'autre mesure entre les différents gouvernements pour déterminer la préférence, soit à cause de la gravité du crime ou délit, ou pour toute autre raison.

ARTICLE XIV.

Si l'individu réclamé est poursuivi, ou s'il a été convaincu d'un crime ou délit commis dans le pays où il pourra s'être réfugié, son extradition pourra être différée jusqu'à ce qu'il ait été élargi suivant le cour ordinaire de la loi.

Dans le cas où il ne serait pas poursuivi ou détenu dans tel pays, a cause des obligations contractées envers des particuliers, l'extradition aura lieu cependant.

ARTICLE XV.

Tout article trouvé en la possession de l'individu réclamé à l'époque de son arrestation, sera saisi si l'autorité compétente le juge à propos, afin qu'il soit livré avec sa propre personne à l'époque où a lieu l'extradition. Cette remise ne sera pas restreinte à la propriété ou aux articles obtenus par vol ou par une banqueroute frauduleuse, mais comprendra tout ce qui pourra servir comme preuve du crime ou délit, et elle se fera même quand l'extradition, après avoir été accordée, ne pourra avoir lieu par suite de la fuite ou de la mort de l'individu réclamé.

Les droits des tierces parties quant à la dite propriété ou aux dits articles sont néanmoins réservés.

ARTICLE XVI.

Les hautes parties contractantes renoncent à toute réclamation pour le remboursement des frais encourus par elles par suite de l'appréhension ou de l'entretien de l'individu à extrader, et de son transport jusqu'à la frontière ; elles consentent mutuellement à payer ces frais elles-mêmes.

ARTICLE XVII.

Le présent traité sera ratifié et les ratifications seront échangés à Londres aussitôt que possible. Il sera exécutoire deux jours après sa publication, conformément aux lois des pays respectifs, et chacune des parties contractantes pourra en tout temps abroger le traité en donnant à l'autre un avis de six mois de son intention à cet effet.

En témoignage de quoi les plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé ce traité et ont apposé les sceaux de leurs armes.

Fait à Londres, le quatrième jour de juin dans l'année de Notre Seigneur, mil huit cent soixante-et-huit.

(L.S.) SALISBURY,

Et attendu que les ratifications du dit traité ont été échangées à Londres, le vingt et un courant.

C'est pourquoi, maintenant, Sa Majesté, par et de l'avis de son Conseil Privé, et en vertu de l'autorité à elle conférée, par les actes précités, ordonne, et il est par les présentes ordonné, que, depuis et après le neuvième jour de décembre mil huit cent soixante-dix-huit, les dits actes s'appliqueront quant au dit traité au roi d'Espagne.

Avis du Gouvernement.

CERTIFICATS DE CAPACITÉ POUR LE SERVICE DES YACHTS.

En vertu d'un ordre du conseil en date du 17 février 1879, des certificats canadiens de capacité pourront être octroyés, conformément aux dispositions de l'acte canadien, 33 Vict., chap. 17, aux personnes en Canada qui sont capitaines de leurs propres yachts et possèdent les qualités nécessaires, sujettes aux règlements suivants, savoir :—

Règlements.

1o. L'examen est purement volontaire et est restreint aux personnes qui commandent leurs yachts pour leur propre agrément. Un capitaine d'un yacht qui n'en est pas aussi le propriétaire, ne saurait être admis à l'examen.

2o. Il sera émis des certificats d'une seule catégorie, qui donneront droit au détenteur de commander son propre yacht, qu'il navigue à l'étranger ou dans les eaux nord-américaines. Le certificat ne permettra pas au détenteur de commander aucun bâtiment si ce n'est le yacht dont il est alors le propriétaire.

3o. Les candidats ne sont pas tenus d'avoir servi pendant un certain temps sur mer, car on croit que leur connaissance de la mer sera suffisamment mise à l'épreuve par l'examen qu'ils auront à subir au sujet de leurs connaissances nautiques.

4o. Il ne sera pas nécessaire de produire des preuves de service.

5o. Une somme de $10 sera exigible pour l'examen tout comme pour l'examen d'un capitaine d'un navire allant à l'étranger.

Navigation.—Il doit comprendre les cinq premières règles de l'arithmétique et l'usage des logarithmes. Il doit pouvoir faire le service d'une journée complète de travail, y compris les portées et distances d'un port à un autre au moyen de la méthode de Mercator, rectifier la déclinaison du soleil pour la longitude, et trouver sa latitude pour l'altitude méridienne du soleil. Il doit pouvoir observer et computer l'amplitude du soleil et en déduire les variations de la boussole. Il doit pouvoir indiquer l'endroit où se trouve le bâtiment sur la carte, tant par la portée des objets connus que par la latitude et la longitude. Il doit pouvoir déterminer l'erreur d'un sextant, et la rectifier ; il doit aussi pouvoir trouver l'époque des hautes eaux avec les changements qui en résultent. Il doit pouvoir observer les azimuths et en computer les variations, comparer les chronomètres et mesurer le temps, et trouver par eux la longitude d'après une observation du soleil ; il doit pouvoir constater la latitude par la seule altitude du soleil à la hauteur du méridien, et de pouvoir se servir et régler le sextant par le soleil. Il doit pouvoir trouver la latitude par une étoile, etc. Il sera tenu de répondre par écrit à certaines questions quant à l'effet du fer du bâtiment sur la boussole, et quant aux méthodes de déterminer les erreurs qui en résultent. Il sera interrogé sur les lois des marées qui lui sont nécessaires pour lui permettre de suivre une route, et pour comparer ses sondages avec les profondeurs indiquées sur les cartes. Il doit posséder une connaissance suffisante des Actes de la marine marchande, ainsi que des mesures nécessaires pour empêcher et contrôler le scorbut à bord du bâtiment. Il doit connaitre les phares principaux sur la côte qu'il fréquente habituellement, ou qui devront lui être utiles.

En fait de navigation, il devra comprendre l'opération de la ligne de loch, de l'ampoulette et du plomb de sonde ; et subir un examen satisfaisant d'après le livret à couverture verte publié par la Chambre de Commerce de Londres, au sujet de la route des bâtiments à vapeur et à voiles, ainsi que des lumières et des signaux d'alarme ; en outre, il devra subir un examen sur le "Code international des signaux, à l'usage des nations," et il faudra qu'il sache comment amarrer et démarrer, comment tenir l'ancre libre et comment l'enlever. Il sera aussi questionné sur l'usage et l'arrangement du mortier et des fusées dans le cas où le vaisseau échoue, sur la direction d'un bâtiment durant les tempêtes, sur la manière de replier et déplier les voiles, de jeter un vaisseau sous le vent de la côte, et de protéger les mâts lorsqu'il arrive quelque accident au beaupré. Il sera également interrogé sur son habileté à construire des gouvernails de rechange et des radeaux, et à pourvoir à la sûreté de l'équipage, en cas de naufrage.

Si le candidat n'a servi qu'à bord d'un vaisseau équipé à l'avant et à l'arrière, et ignore la direction d'un vaisseau mâté à trait carré, il obtiendra un certificat sur lequel les mots "vaisseau équipé à l'avant et à l'arrière" seront inscrits. Et ce certificat ne lui permettra pas de commander un vaisseau à trait carré.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou privilèges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit :

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba :

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces :

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires; et mentionner de plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français: la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

72. Quiconque a l'intention de demander un bill de divorce, doit donner avis de son intention, et spécifier d'avec qui et pour quelle cause il veut divorcer. L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y paraît pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.

The present Treaty shall apply to crimes and offences committed prior to the signature of the Treaty; but a person surrendered shall not be tried for any crime or offence committed in the other country before the extradition, other than the crime for which his surrender has been granted.

ARTICLE IV.

No person shall be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove to the satisfaction of the competent authority of the State in which he is that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offenee of a political character.

ARTICLE V.

In the States of His Majesty the King of Spain, excepting the provinces or possessions beyond sea, the proceedings for demanding and obtaining the extradition shall be as follows :—

The Diplomatic Representative of Great Britain shall send to the Minister for Foreign Affairs (Ministro de Estado) with the demand for extradition an authenticated and legalised copy of the sentence or of the warrant of arrest against the person accused, clearly showing the crime or offence for which proceedings are taken against the fugitive. This judicial document shall be accompanied, if possible, by a description of the person claimed, and any other information or particulars that may serve to identify him.

These documents shall be communicated by the Minister for Foreign Affairs to the Minister of Grace and Justice, by whose Department, after examining the documents and finding that there is reason for the extradition, a Royal Order will be issued granting it, and directing the arrest of the person claimed and his delivery to the British authorities

In virtue of the said Royal Order the Minister of the Interior (Ministro de la Gobernacion) will adopt the fitting measures for the arrest of the fugitive, and when this has taken place, the person claimed shall be placed at the disposal of the Diplomatic Representative who has demanded his extradition, and he shall be taken to the part of the frontier or to the seaport where the Agent appointed for the purpose by Her Britannic Majesty's Government is ready to take charge of him.

In case the documents furnished by the said Government for the identification of the person claimed or the information obtained by the Spanish authorities for the same purpose, should be considered insufficient, immediate notice thereof shall be given to the Diplomatic Representative of Great Britain, and the person under arrest shall be detained until the British Government shall have furnished fresh evidence to prove his identity or to clear up any other difficulty relative to the examination and decision of the affair.

ARTICLE VI.

In the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, other than the Colonies or Foreign Possessions of Her Majesty, the manner of proceeding, in order to demand and obtain extradition, shall be as follows — :

(A.) In the case of a person accused—The requisition for the surrender shall be made to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs by the Diplomatic Representative of His Majesty the King of Spain. The said demand shall be accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other equivalent judicial document, issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take cognizance of the acts charged against the accused in Spain, and duly authenticated depositions or statements taken on oath before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said acts, and containing a description of the person claimed, and any particulars which may serve to identify him.

The Principal Secretary of State shall transmit such documents to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall then, by order under his hand and seal, signify to some Police Magistrate in London that such requisition has been made, and require him, if there be due cause, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive. On the receipt of such order from the Secretary of State, and on the production of such evidence as would, in the opinion of the Magistrate, justify the issue of the warrant if the crime had been committed in the United Kingdom, he shall issue his warrant accordingly.

When the person claimed shall have been apprehended, he shall be brought before the Magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other Police Magistrate in London. If the evidence to be then produced shall be such as to justify, according to the law of England, the committal for trial of the prisoner, if the crime of which he is accused had been committed in the United Kingdom, the Police Magistrate shall commit him to prison to await the warrant of the Secretary of State for his surrender; sending immediately to the Secretary of State a certificate of the committal and a report upon the case.

After the expiration of a period from the committal of the prisoner, which shall never be less than fifteen days, the Secretary of State shall, by order under his hand and seal, order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as may be duly authorized to receive him on the part of the Spanish Government.

(B.) In the case of a person convicted—The course of proceeding shall be the same as above indicated, except that the warrant to be transmitted by the Diplomatic Representative of Spain in support of his requisition shall clearly set forth the crime or offence of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the place and date of his conviction.

The evidence to be produced before the Police Magistrate shall be such as would, according to the law of England, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged.

(C.) Persons convicted by judgment in default or arrêt de contumace, shall be, in the matter of extradition, considered as persons accused, and, as such, be surrendered.

(D.) After the Police Magistrate shall have committed the accused or convicted person to prison to await the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, such person shall have the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus; if he should so apply, his surrender must be deferred until after the decision of the Court upon the return to the writ, and even then can only take place if the decision is adverse to the applicant. In the latter case the Court may at once order his delivery to the person authorized to receive him, without the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, or commit him to prison to await such order.

ARTICLE VII.

Warrants, depositions, or statements on oath, issued or taken in the dominions of either of the two High Contracting Parties, and copies thereof, and certificates of or judicial documents stating the facts of conviction, shall be received in evidence in proceedings in the dominions of the other, if purporting to be signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the country where they were issued or taken, provided such warrants, depositions, statements, copies, certificates, and judicial documents are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE VIII.

A fugitive criminal may be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the authority issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the person convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which the Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority exercises jurisdiction; provided, however, that, in the United Kingdom, the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London. He shall, in accordance with this Article, be discharged, as well in Spain as in the United Kingdom, if, within the term of thirty days, a requisition for extradition shall not have been made by the Diplomatic Agent of his country, in accordance with the stipulations of this Treaty.

The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offences specified in this Treaty, and committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE IX.

If the fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison be not surrendered and conveyed away within two months after such committal, or within two months after the adverse decision of the Court upon the return to a writ of habeas corpus in the United Kingdom, he shall be discharged from custody, unless sufficient cause be shown to the contrary.

ARTICLE X.

In the Provinces beyond sea, Colonies and other Possessions beyond sea of the two High Contracting Parties, the manner of proceeding shall be as follows:—

The requisition for extradition of the fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in an over-sea Province, Colony, or Possession of either of the two Contracting Parties, shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Province, Colony or Possession by the chief Consular Officer of the other State in such Province, Colony, or Possession; or, if the fugitive has escaped from an over-sea Province, Colony, or Possession of the State on whose behalf the extradition is demanded, by the Governor or chief authority of such Province, Colony, or Possession.

In these cases the provisions of this Treaty shall be observed as far as possible by the respective Governors or chief authorities, who, however, shall be at liberty to grant the extradition or to refer the decision of the matter to the Governments of their respective countries.

ARTICLE XI.

In cases where it may be necessary, the Spanish Government shall be represented at the English Courts by the Law Officers of the Crown, and the English Government in the Spanish Court by the Public Prosecutor (Ministerio Fiscal.)

The respective Governments will give assistance to the Diplomatic Representatives who claim their intervention for the custody and security of the persons subject to extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

The claim for extradition shall not be complied with if the individual claimed has been already tried for the same offence in the country whence the extradition is demanded, or if, since the commission of the acts charged, the accusation or the conviction, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of that country.

ARTICLE XIII.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties, in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other powers, on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date; unless any other arrangement should exist between the different Governments to determine the preference, either on account of the gravity of the crime or offence, or for any other reason.

ARTICLE XIV.

If the individual claimed should be under prosecution, or have been condemned for a crime or offence committed in the country where he may have taken refuge, his surrender may be deferred until he shall have been set at liberty in due course of law.

In case he should be proceeded against or detained in such country, on account of obligations contracted towards private individuals, the extradition shall nevertheless take place.

ARTICLE XV.

Every article found in the possession of the individual claimed at the time of his arrest, shall, if the competent authority so decide, be seized, in order to be delivered up with his person at the time when the extradition takes place. Such delivery shall not be limited to the property or articles obtained by stealing or by fraudulent bankruptcy, but shall extend to every thing that may serve as proof of the crime or offence, and shall take place even when the extradition, after having been granted, cannot be carried out by reason of the escape or death of the individual claimed.

The rights of third parties with regard to the said property or articles are nevertheless reserved.

ARTICLE XVI.

The High Contracting Parties renounce any claim for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred by them in the arrest and maintenance of the person to be surrendered, and his conveyance as far as the frontier; they reciprocally agree to bear such expenses themselves.

ARTICLE XVII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as possible.

It shall come into operation ten days after its publication, in conformity with the laws of the respective countries, and each of the Contracting Parties may at any time terminate the Treaty on giving to the other six months' notice of its intention to do so.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at London, the fourth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.) SALISBURY.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at London on the twenty-first instant:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the King of Spain.

51. All applications for Private Bills, properly the subjects of legislation by the Parliament of Canada, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railroad, Turnpike Road or Telegraph Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam or Slide, or other like work; the granting the right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular Trade or Calling, or of any Banking or other Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for the granting to any individual or individuals, any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which, in its operation, would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community; or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act, shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and (except in the case of existing corporations) signed by, or on behalf of the applicants, to be published as follows, viz:

In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, in the English and French languages, and in one newspaper in the English, and in one in the French language in the District affected, or in both languages in one paper, if there be but one in the said District, or if there be no paper published therein, then, in both languages, in a paper in the nearest District, in which a newspaper is published.

And copies of the newspapers containing the first and last insertion of such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of each House.

When a Petition is for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, the petitioner or petitioners, upon giving the notice prescribed by the preceding Rule, shall also, at the same time, and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask; the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and whether they intend to erect a drawbridge, and the dimensions of the same.

Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall, eight days before the meeting of Parliament, deposit with the Clerk of the House, in which the bill is to originate, a copy of such bill in the English or French language, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same—600 copies to be printed in English, and 200 copies in French—the translation to be done by the officers of the House, and the printing by the contractor. The applicant shall be also required to pay the accountant of the House a sum of $200 and the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes, and lodge the receipt of the same with the Clerk of the Committee to which such Bill is referred—such payment to be made immediately after the second reading, and before the consideration of the Bill by such Committee.

AVIS RELATIF AU TONNAGE INTERNATIONAL.

La copie suivante d'un ordre récemment émis par Sa Majesté en conseil modifie un ordre précédent du conseil, en date du 29 février 1868, exemptant les bâtiments danois d'être jaugés de nouveau, pourvu que les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement soient datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867.

WM. SMITH,
Député ministre de la Marine.

Département de la Marine,
Ottawa, 6 mars 1879.

A la cour à Osborne House, Ile de Wight, le 30ème jour de décembre 1878.

PRÉSENT :

Sa Très Excellente Majesté la Reine en conseil :

ATTENDU que par "l'Acte amendé concernant "la marine marchande de 1862," il est décrété "que chaque fois qu'il sera démontré à Sa Majesté "que les règlements concernant le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands alors en vigueur en vertu de l'acte "principal, ont été adoptés par le gouvernement "d'un pays étranger et sont exécutoires dans ce "pays, il sera loisible à Sa Majesté, par ordre du conseil, de décréter que les bâtiments de tels pays "étrangers, seront réputés avoir le tonnage indiqué "dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autres "pièces nationales et qu'il ne sera pas nécessaire que "ces bâtiments soient jaugés de nouveau dans aucun port ou endroit dans les domaines de Sa Majesté, mais ces bâtiments seront réputés avoir le "tonnage indiqué dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autres pièces, de la même manière, au "même degré, et pour les mêmes fins, pour lesquelles "le tonnage indiqué dans le certificat d'enregistrement des bâtiments anglais est réputé être le tonnage de ces bâtiments ;"

Et attendu que par "l'Acte concernant la marine marchande de 1876," il est décrété "que quand Sa "Majesté a le pouvoir en vertu de "l'Acte concernant la marine marchande de 1854," ou tout acte "passé ou qui sera adopté amendant le dit acte, de "passer un ordre du conseil, il sera loisible à Sa "Majesté de temps à autre de révoquer, d'altérer ou "d'ajouter à tout ordre ainsi fait ;"

Et attendu que par un ordre du conseil, daté du 29 février 1868, il a plu à Sa Majesté, à laquelle il a été prouvé que les dits règlements pour le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands ont été adoptés par le gouvernement de Sa Majesté, le roi du Danemark, de décréter que les bâtiments du Danemark, les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement, datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867, seront réputés être le tonnage indiqué dans les dits certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement ;

Et attendu que certaines modifications ont été faites récemment dans les règlements relatifs au tonnage des bâtiments marchands, qui sont en vigueur au Danemark, par lesquels, depuis et après le 1er jour d'octobre 1878, l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans certains navires sera calculé d'un mode différent de celui qui est en vigueur dans ce pays ;

Et attendu qu'il a été démontré à Sa Majesté qu'il est désirable de modifier le dit ordre du conseil, autant qu'il s'applique ou se rattache au mode de calculer l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans les navires danois,—il a plu à Sa Majesté par et de l'avis du Conseil Privé de décréter, pour ce qui concerne les bâtiments danois, que si le propriétaire ou le capitaine d'aucun navire marchand, appartenant au dit royaume du Danemark, et jaugé après le dit 1er jour d'octobre 1878, mû par la vapeur ou toute autre force motrice nécessitant un compartiment pour la machine, désire que l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans son bâtiment soit calculé conformément au règlement pour le mesurage du compartiment de la machine, applicables aux bâtiments anglais, au lieu de l'être en vertu des règlements danois, le compartiment de la machine sera mesuré et l'espace calculé d'après les règlements anglais.

PRÉSENT :

Sa Très Excellente Majesté la Reine en Conseil.

ATTENDU que par un acte du parlement, fait et passé dans la session du parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa présente Majesté, intitulé, "Un acte à l'effet d'amender la loi concernant l'extradition des criminels," et que par un acte du parlement fait et passé dans la session du parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa présente Majesté, intitulé : "Un acte à l'effet d'amender l'acte d'extradition de 1870," il a été entre autre choses décrété que, quant une convention a été faite avec un Etat étranger concernant la remise à tel Etat de tout accusé fugitif, Sa Majesté peut par le même ordre ou un ordre subséquent, limiter l'application de l'ordre, et le restreindre aux criminels fugitifs qui se trouvent ou qui sont soupçonnés se trouver dans la partie des domaines de Sa Majesté spécifiée dans l'ordre, et en rendre l'application sujette à telles conditions, exceptions et considérations qu'elle pourra juger désirables.

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et de l'Irlande, et Sa Majesté le Roi d'Espagne ont jugé qu'il était désirable, dans le but de mieux administrer la justice et d'assurer la répression des crimes, que les personnes prévenues ou convaincues des crimes ci-après énumérés, et ayant voulu échapper à la vindicte des lois, fussent, dans certaines circonstances, extradées réciproquement, et elles ont résolu de conclure le présent traité, et elles ont nommé leurs plénipotentiaires, savoir :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et de l'Irlande, le Très-Honorable Robert Arthur Talbot Gascoyne Cecil, Marquis et Comte de Salisbury, le Vicomte Cranborne, Dorset et le Baron Cecil d'Essendine, un pair du Royaume-Uni, un membre du Très-Honorable Conseil Privé de Sa Majesté, son principal secrétaire d'Etat pour les affaires étrangères :—

22. La traite des esclaves de façon à constituer un délit contre les lois des deux pays.

L'extradition sera aussi accordée pour participation dans aucun de ces crimes comme étant connexe avant ou après la perpétration, pourvu que cette participation soit punissable par les lois des deux parties contractantes.

ARTICLE III.

Le présent traité s'appliquera aux crimes et délits commis avant la passation du traité ; mais aucun individu extradé ne sera poursuivi pour crime ou délit antérieur à l'extradition, autre que le crime pour lequel son extradition a été accordée.

ARTICLE IV.

Aucun individu ne sera livré si le délit au sujet auquel son extradition est demandée, est d'un caractère politique, ou s'il prouve, à la satisfaction de l'autorité compétente de l'Etat dans lequel il est, que la demande de son extradition a été faite dans le but de la poursuivre ou de le punir pour un délit politique.

ARTICLE V.

Dans les Etats de Sa Majesté le roi d'Espagne, sauf les provinces ou possessions au-delà de la mer, la demande d'extradition devra se faire comme suit :

Le représentant diplomatique de la Grande-Bretagne enverra au ministre des Affaires Etrangères (Ministro de Estado), avec la demande de l'extradition, une copie authentique et légalisée du jugement de condamnation ou de l'arrêt porté contre l'accusé, indiquant clairement, le crime ou délit qui a motivé la demande d'extradition. Les pièces seront, autant que possible, accompagnées du signalement de l'individu réclamé, et de tous les renseignements qui pourront faciliter son identification. Ces documents seront communiqués par le ministre des Affaires Etrangères au ministre de Grâce et de Justice, par le département duquel, après examen des faits et constatation qu'il y a lieu de demander l'extradition, un ordre royal sera émis accordant l'extradition et décrétant l'arrestation de l'individu réclamé et sa remise aux autorités anglaises.

En vertu du dit ordre royal le ministre de l'Intérieur (Ministro de la Gobernation) adoptera les mesures nécessaires pour l'arrestation du fugitif, et cela fait, l'individu réclamé sera mis à la disposition du représentant diplomatique qui a demandé son extradition, et il sera conduit à l'endroit de la frontière ou au port de mer où l'agent nommé à cet effet par le gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique sera prêt à en prendre soin.

Dans le cas où les pièces communiquées par le gouvernement pour l'identification de l'individu réclamé ou les renseignements obtenus par les autorités espagnoles pour le même objet seraient jugées insuffisantes, avis immédiat en sera donné au représentant diplomatique de la Grande-Bretagne, et l'individu arrêté sera détenu jusqu'à ce que le gouvernement anglais ait obtenu de nouvelles preuves pour établir son identification ou pour faire disparaître toute difficulté relative à l'examen et à la décision de l'affaire.

ARTICLE VI.

Dans les possessions de Sa Majesté Britannique, autres que les colonies ou les possessions étrangères

de Sa Majesté, la demande d'extradition devra se faire comme suit :—

Le principal secrétaire d'Etat transmettra ces pièces au principal secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique au département de l'Intérieur, qui, par un ordre sous son seing et sceau, signifiera à un magistrat de police à Londres que cette demande a été faite, et lui enjoindra, s'il y a lieu, d'émettre son mandat pour l'appréhension du fugitif sur la réception de cet ordre du secrétaire d'Etat, et sur la production des faits qui seraient suffisants dans l'opinion du magistrat, pour justifier l'émission du mandat si le crime a été commis dans le Royaume-Uni, il émettra son mandat en conséquence.

Quand l'individu réclamé aura été appréhendé, il sera traduit devant le magistrat qui a décerné le mandat ou devant un autre magistrat de police à Londres.

Si les faits alors produits suffisent pour justifier, conformément à la loi d'Angleterre, l'incarcération de l'accusé en attendant son procès, si le crime dont il est prévenu a été commis dans le Royaume-Uni, le magistrat de police l'enverra en prison en attendant le mandat du secrétaire d'Etat, pour son extradition, envoyant immédiatement au secrétaire d'Etat un certificat de l'acte d'incarcération en attendant le procès et un rapport sur le cas.

Après qu'une période d'au moins quinze jours se sera écoulée depuis l'incarcération, le secrétaire d'Etat devra décréter par un ordre sous son seing et sceau, que l'accusé fugitif soit remis à la personne qui pourra être duement autorisée à le recevoir de la part du gouvernement espagnol.

(B) Dans le cas d'un individu condamné,—la procédure sera la même que celle ci-haut indiquée, si ce n'est que le mandat que le représentant diplomatique de l'Espagne doit transmettre à l'appui de sa demande devra indiquer clairement le crime ou le délit pour lequel l'individu réclamé a été condamné, ainsi que la date et le lieu de sa condamnation.

La preuve à faire devant le magistrat de police sera telle qu'elle devrait, conformément à la loi d'Angleterre, établir que le prisonnier a été convaincu du crime dont il est accusé.

(C) Les individus condamnés par jugement en défaut ou arrêt de contumace seront, dans les cas d'extradition, considérés comme des individus accusés et comme tels seront extradés.

(D) Après que le magistrat de police aura envoyé en prison l'individu accusé ou condamné en attendant l'ordre d'un Secrétaire d'Etat pour son extradition, cet individu aura le droit de demander un bref d'habeas corpus ; s'il fait cette demande, son extradition pourra être différée jusqu'après la décision de la cour sur le rapport du bref et elle ne pourra même avoir lieu que si la décision est adverse au demandant. Dans ce cas la cour pourra ordonner de suite son extradition à la personne autorisée à le recevoir, sans l'ordre d'un secrétaire d'Etat pour son extradition, ou l'envoyer en prison en attendant cet ordre.

ARTICLE VII.

Les mandats, dépositions ou déclarations sous serment, lancés ou faits dans les domaines de l'une des deux hautes parties contractantes, et copies d'iceux, et des certificats ou des actes judiciaires indiquant les faits qui ont motivé la condamnation, seront reçus comme preuves dans les procédures instituées dans les domaines de l'autre, s'ils sont censés être signés ou certifiés par un juge, magistrat ou officier du pays où ils ont été émis ou faits, pourvu que ces mandats, dépositions, déclarations, copies, certificats et actes judiciaires soient authentiqués par quelque témoin sous serment, ou qu'ils soient revêtus du sceau officiel du ministre de la Justice ou de quelqu'autre ministre d'Etat.

ARTICLE VIII.

Un malfaiteur fugitif pourra être appréhendé sur un mandat décerné par un magistrat de police, juge de paix, ou autre autorité compétente dans l'un ou l'autre pays, sur telle déclaration ou plainte, et sur telle preuve, ou après telles procédures qui, dans l'opinion de l'autorité décernant le mandat, justifieraient l'émission d'un mandat si le crime a été commis ou si l'individu est condamné dans cette partie des territoires des deux parties contractantes, où le magistrat, juge de paix, ou autre autorité compétente exerce juridiction ; pourvu toutefois que dans le Royaume-Uni, l'accusé soit traduit aussi promptement que possible devant un magistrat de police à Londres. En conformité de cet article il sera mis en liberté, en Espagne, tout comme dans le Royaume-Unis, si, dans une période de trente jours, une demande d'extradition n'a pas été faite par l'agent diplomatique de son pays, en vertu des stipulations de ce traité.

La même règle s'appliquera aux cas des individus prévenus ou convaincus des crimes ou délits mentionnés dans ce traité, et commis sur les hautes mers à bord d'un bâtiment de l'un et l'autre pays, qui pourra se rendre dans un port de l'autre.

ARTICLE IX.

Si le malfaiteur fugitif qui a été envoyé en prison n'est pas extradé et livré dans les deux mois qui suivront son incarcération, ou dans les deux mois qui suivront la décision de la Cour sur le rapport d'un bref d'habeas corpus dans le Royaume-Uni, il sera mis en liberté, à moins qu'on ne prouve qu'il y a lieu d'agir autrement.

ARTICLE X.

Dans les provinces trans-océaniques et autres territoires situés au-delà de la mer de l'une des hautes parties contractantes, le mode de procédure sera le suivant :

La demande d'extradition du malfaiteur fugitif qui s'est réfugié dans une province au-delà de la mer, colonie ou possession de l'une des deux parties contractantes, sera faite au gouverneur ou à l'autorité principale de telle province, colonie ou possession, par le principal officier consulaire de l'autre Etat dans telle province, colonie ou possession ; ou si le fugitif s'est sauvé d'une province trans-océanique, colonie ou possession de l'Etat, en faveur duquel l'extradition est demandée par le gouverneur ou l'autorité principale de telle province, colonie ou possession.

Dans ce cas, les dispositions de ce traité seront observées autant que possible par les gouverneurs respectifs ou les autorités principales, qui, toutefois, seront libres d'accorder l'extradition ou de soumettre la décision de l'affaire aux gouvernements de leurs pays respectifs.

ARTICLE XI.

Dans les cas où cela pourra être nécessaire, le gouvernement espagnol sera représenté devant les tribunaux anglais par les officiers en loi de la Couronne, et le gouvernement anglais devant les tribunaux espagnols par l'officier de justice appelé (Ministerio Fiscal). Les gouvernements respectifs donneront leur concours aux représentants diplomatiques qui réclament leur intervention pour la mise en lieu sûr des individus sujets à extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

La demande de l'extradition sera rejetée si l'individu réclamé a déjà été poursuivi pour le même délit dans le pays où l'extradition est demandée, ou si, depuis la perpétration des actes dont il est accusé, l'accusation ou la condamnation, l'exemption de poursuite ou de punition a été acquise par le laps de temps écoulé conformément aux lois de ce pays.

ARTICLE XIII.

Si l'individu réclamé par l'une des deux hautes parties contractantes, en vertu du présent traité, est aussi réclamé par un ou plusieurs autres pays, à raison de crimes ou délits commis sur leurs territoires respectifs, son extradition sera accordée à l'Etat qui a fait la première demande, à moins qu'il n'ait été pris quelqu'autre mesure entre les différents gouvernements pour déterminer la préférence, soit à cause de la gravité du crime ou délit, ou pour toute autre raison.

ARTICLE XIV.

Si l'individu réclamé est poursuivi, ou s'il a été convaincu d'un crime ou délit commis dans le pays où il pourra s'être réfugié, son extradition pourra être différée jusqu'à ce qu'il ait été élargi suivant le cour ordinaire de la loi.

Dans le cas où il ne serait pas poursuivi ou détenu dans tel pays, a cause des obligations contractées envers des particuliers, l'extradition aura lieu cependant.

ARTICLE XV.

Tout article trouvé en la possession de l'individu réclamé à l'époque de son arrestation, sera saisi si l'autorité compétente le juge à propos, afin qu'il soit livré avec sa propre personne à l'époque où a lieu l'extradition. Cette remise ne sera pas restreinte à la propriété ou aux articles obtenus par vol ou par une banqueroute frauduleuse, mais comprendra tout ce qui pourra servir comme preuve du crime ou délit, et elle se fera même quand l'extradition, après avoir été accordée, ne pourra avoir lieu par suite de la fuite ou de la mort de l'individu réclamé.

Les droits des tierces parties quant à la dite propriété ou aux dits articles sont néanmoins réservés.

ARTICLE XVI.

Les hautes parties contractantes renoncent à toute réclamation pour le remboursement des frais encourus par elles par suite de l'appréhension ou de l'entretien de l'individu à extrader, et de son transport jusqu'à la frontière ; elles consentent mutuellement à payer ces frais elles-mêmes.

ARTICLE XVII.

Le présent traité sera ratifié et les ratifications seront échangés à Londres aussitôt que possible. Il sera exécutoire deux jours après sa publication, conformément aux lois des pays respectifs, et chacune des parties contractantes pourra en tout temps abroger le traité en donnant à l'autre un avis de six mois de son intention à cet effet.

En témoignage de quoi les plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé ce traité et ont apposé les sceaux de leurs armes.

Fait à Londres, le quatrième jour de juin dans l'année de Notre Seigneur, mil huit cent soixante-et-huit.

(L.S.) SALISBURY,

Et attendu que les ratifications du dit traité ont été échangées à Londres, le vingt et un courant.

C'est pourquoi, maintenant, Sa Majesté, par et de l'avis de son Conseil Privé, et en vertu de l'autorité à elle conférée, par les actes précités, ordonne, et il est par les présentes ordonné, que, depuis et après le neuvième jour de décembre mil huit cent soixante-dix-huit, les dits actes s'appliqueront quant au dit traité au roi d'Espagne.

Avis du Gouvernement.

CERTIFICATS DE CAPACITÉ POUR LE SERVICE DES YACHTS.

En vertu d'un ordre du conseil en date du 17 février 1879, des certificats canadiens de capacité pourront être octroyés, conformément aux dispositions de l'acte canadien, 33 Vict., chap. 17, aux personnes en Canada qui sont capitaines de leurs propres yachts et possèdent les qualités nécessaires, sujettes aux règlements suivants, savoir :—

RÈGLEMENTS.

1o. L'examen est purement volontaire et est restreint aux personnes qui commandent leurs yachts pour leur propre agrément. Un capitaine d'un yacht qui n'en est pas aussi le propriétaire, ne saurait être admis à l'examen.

2o. Il sera émis des certificats d'une seule catégorie, qui donneront droit au détenteur de commander son propre yacht, qu'il navigue à l'étranger ou dans les eaux nord-américaines. Le certificat ne permettra pas au détenteur de commander aucun bâtiment si ce n'est le yacht dont il est alors le propriétaire.

3o. Les candidats ne sont pas tenus d'avoir servi pendant un certain temps sur mer, car on croit que leur connaissance de la mer sera suffisamment mise à l'épreuve par l'examen qu'ils auront à subir au sujet de leurs connaissances nautiques.

4o. Il ne sera pas nécessaire de produire des preuves de service.

5o. Une somme de $10 sera exigible pour l'examen tout comme pour l'examen d'un capitaine d'un navire allant à l'étranger.

CONNAISSANCES NÉCESSAIRES.

Navigation.—Il doit comprendre les cinq premières règles de l'arithmétique et l'usage des logarithmes. Il doit pouvoir faire le service d'une journée complète de travail, y compris les portées et distances d'un port à un autre au moyen de la méthode de Mercator, rectifier la déclinaison du soleil pour la longitude, et trouver sa latitude pour l'altitude méridienne du soleil. Il doit pouvoir observer et computer l'amplitude du soleil et en déduire les variations de la boussole. Il doit pouvoir indiquer l'endroit où se trouve le bâtiment sur la carte, tant par la portée des objets connus que par la latitude et la longitude. Il doit pouvoir déterminer l'erreur d'un sextant, et la rectifier ; il doit aussi pouvoir trouver l'époque des hautes eaux avec les changements qui en résultent. Il doit pouvoir observer les azimuths et en computer les variations, comparer les chronomètres et mesurer le temps, et trouver par eux la longitude d'après une observation du soleil ; il doit pouvoir constater la latitude par la seule altitude du soleil à la hauteur du méridien, et de pouvoir se servir et régler le sextant par le soleil. Il doit pouvoir trouver la latitude par une étoile, etc. Il sera tenu de répondre par écrit à certaines questions quant à l'effet du fer du bâtiment sur la boussole, et quant aux méthodes de déterminer les erreurs qui en résultent. Il sera interrogé sur les lois des marées qui lui sont nécessaires pour lui permettre de suivre une route, et pour comparer ses sondages avec les profondeurs indiquées sur les cartes. Il doit posséder une connaissance suffisante des Actes de la marine marchande, ainsi que des mesures nécessaires pour empêcher et contrôler le scorbut à bord du bâtiment. Il doit connaitre les phares principaux sur la côte qu'il fréquente habituellement, ou qui devront lui être utiles.

En fait de navigation, il devra comprendre l'opération de la ligne de loch, de l'ampoulette et du plomb de sonde ; et subir un examen satisfaisant d'après le livret à couverture verte publié par la Chambre de Commerce de Londres, au sujet de la route des bâtiments à vapeur et à voiles, ainsi que des lumières et des signaux d'alarme ; en outre, il devra subir un examen sur le "Code international des signaux, à l'usage des nations," et il faudra qu'il sache comment amarrer et démarrer, comment tenir l'ancre libre et comment l'enlever. Il sera aussi questionné sur l'usage et l'arrangement du mortier et des fusées dans le cas où le vaisseau échoue, sur la direction d'un bâtiment durant les tempêtes, sur la manière de replier et déplier les voiles, de jeter un vaisseau sous le vent de la côte, et de protéger les mâts lorsqu'il arrive quelque accident au beaupré. Il sera également interrogé sur son habileté à construire des gouvernails de rechange et des radeaux, et à pourvoir à la sûreté de l'équipage, en cas de naufrage.

Si le candidat n'a servi qu'à bord d'un vaisseau équipé à l'avant et à l'arrière, et ignore la direction d'un vaisseau mâté à trait carré, il obtiendra un certificat sur lequel les mots "vaisseau équipé à l'avant et à l'arrière" seront inscrits. Et ce certificat ne lui permettra pas de commander un vaisseau à trait carré.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit:

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba:

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces:

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires; et mentionner de plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

72. Quiconque a l'intention de demander un bill de divorce, doit donner avis de son intention, et spécifier d'avec qui et pour quelle cause il veut divorcer. L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y paraît pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.

51. All applications for Private Bills, properly the subjects of legislation by the Parliament of Canada, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railroad, Turnpike Road or Telegraph Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam or Slide, or other like work; the granting the right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular Trade or Calling, or of any Banking or other Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for the granting to any individual or individuals, any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which, in its operation, would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community; or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act, shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and (except in the case of existing corporations) signed by, or on behalf of the applicants, to be published as follows, viz:

In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, in the English and French languages, and in one newspaper in the English, and in one in the French language in the District affected, or in both languages in one paper, if there be but one in the said District, or if there be no paper published therein, then, in both languages, in a paper in the nearest District, in which a newspaper is published.

Downing Street,

Monsieur,—J'ai l'honneur de vous transmettre pour votre information et pour la faire publier dans la colonie sous votre gouvernement, une copie d'un ordre de la Reine en Conseil, en date du 30 décembre dernier, en vertu des actes concernant la marine marchande, modifiant un précédent ordre du conseil du 20 février 1868, exemptant de re-jaugeage dans ce pays les bâtiments danois, dont les certificats de nationalité danoise et d'enregistrement sont datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867.

Il appert que la chambre de commerce n'a pas communiqué à ce département, comme dans le cas actuel, une copie d'un ordre du conseil en date du 20 février 1878, pour être transmise aux différents gouvernements coloniaux, c'est pourquoi j'inclus des copies de cet ordre, qui (si elles ne sont pas déjà publiées dans la colonie) devraient être publiées en même temps comme l'ordre le modifiant.

J'ai l'honneur d'être,
Monsieur,
Votre très obéissant et humble serviteur,

M. E. HICKS BEACH.

L'officier administrant
le gouvernement du Canada.

A la Cour à Osborne House, Ile de Wight, le 29 février 1868.

PRÉSENT :

Sa Très Excellente Majesté la Reine en Conseil.

ATTENDU que par l'"Acte amendant l'acte concernant la marine marchande de 1862" il est décrété que "lorsqu'il sera démontré à Sa Majesté " que les règlements concernant le jaugeage des bâti- " ments marchands alors en vigueur en vertu de l'acte " principal, ont été adoptés par le gouvernement " d'un pays étranger et sont exécutoires dans ce " pays, il sera loisible à Sa Majesté, par ordre du con- " seil, de décréter que les bâtiments de tels pays " étrangers, seront réputés avoir le tonnage indiqué " dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autres " pièces nationales et qu'il ne sera pas nécessaire que " ces bâtiments soient jaugés de nouveau dans au- " cun port ou endroit dans les domaines de Sa Ma- " jesté, mais ces bâtiments seront réputés avoir le " tonnage indiqué dans leurs certificats d'enregistre- " ment ou autres pièces, de la même manière, au " même degré, et pour les mêmes fins pour lesquelles " le tonnage indiqué dans le certificat d'enregistre- " ment des bâtiments anglais est réputé être le ton- " nage de ces bâtiments."

Et attendu qu'il a été démontré à Sa Majesté que les règlements concernant le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands maintenant en vigueur en vertu de "l'Acte concernant la marine marchande de 1854" ont été adoptés par le gouvernement de Sa Majesté le Roi du Danemark, et sont en vigueur dans ce pays, et que ces règlements sont exécutoires le 1er jour d'octbre mil huit cent soixante-sept,—

Il a plu à Sa Majesté, par les présentes, de l'avis du Conseil Privé, de décréter que les bâtiments du Danemark dont les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement, datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867, seront réputés être le tonnage indiqué dans les dits certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement.

ARTHUR HELPS.

(Pour l'Ordre en Conseil de 1878, voir l'avis du ministère de la Marine et des Pêcheries, plus bas.

AVIS RELATIF AU TONNAGE INTERNATIONAL.

La copie suivante d'un ordre récemment émis par Sa Majesté en conseil modifie un ordre précédent du conseil, en date du 29 février 1868, exemptant les bâtiments danois d'être jaugés de nouveau, pourvu que les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement soient datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867.

Député ministre de la Marine.

A la cour à Osborne House, Ile de Wight, le 30ème jour de décembre 1878.

PRÉSENT :

Sa Très Excellente Majesté la Reine en conseil :

ATTENDU que par " l'Acte amendé concernant " la marine marchande de 1862, " il est décrété " que chaque fois qu'il sera démontré à Sa Majesté " que les règlements concernant le jaugeage des bâti- " ments marchands alors en vigueur en vertu de l'acte " principal, ont été adoptés par le gouvernement " d'un pays étranger et sont exécutoires dans ce " pays, il sera loisible à Sa Majesté, par ordre du con- " seil, de décréter que les bâtiments de tels pays " étrangers, seront réputés avoir le tonnage indiqué " dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autres " pièces nationales et qu'il ne sera pas nécessaire que " ces bâtiments soient jaugés de nouveau dans au- " cun port ou endroit dans les domaines de Sa Ma- " jesté, mais ces bâtiments seront réputés avoir le " tonnage indiqué dans leurs certificats d'enregistre- " ment ou autres pièces, de la même manière, au " même degré, et pour les mêmes fins, pour lesquelles " le tonnage indiqué dans le certificat d'enregistre- " ment des bâtiments anglais est réputé être le ton- " nage de ces bâtiments ;"

Et attendu que par " l'Acte concernant la marine marchande de 1876," il est décrété "que quand Sa " Majesté a le pouvoir en vertu de " l'Acte concer- " nant la marine marchande de 1854," ou tout acte " passé ou qui sera adopté amendant le dit acte, de " passer un ordre du conseil, il sera loisible à Sa " Majesté de temps à autre de révoquer, d'altérer ou " d'ajouter à tout ordre ainsi fait ;"

Et attendu que par un ordre du conseil, daté du 29 février 1868, il a plu à Sa Majesté, à laquelle il a été prouvé que les dits règlements pour le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands ont été adoptés par le gouvernement de Sa Majesté, le roi du Danemark, de décréter que les bâtiments du Danemark, les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement, datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867, seront réputés être le tonnage indiqué dans les dits certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement ;

Et attendu que certaines modifications ont été faites récemment dans les règlements relatifs au tonnage des bâtiments marchands, qui sont en vigueur au Danemark, par lesquels, depuis et après le 1er jour d'octobre 1878, l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans certains navires sera calculé d'un mode différent de celui qui est en vigueur dans ce pays ;

Et attendu qu'il a été démontré à Sa Majesté qu'il est désirable de modifier le dit ordre du conseil, autant qu'il s'applique ou se rattache au mode de calculer l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans les navires danois,—il a plu à Sa Majesté par et de l'avis du Conseil Privé de décréter, pour ce qui concerne les bâtiments danois, que si le propriétaire ou le capitaine d'aucun navire marchand, appartenant au dit royaume du Danemark, et jaugé après le dit 1er jour d'octobre 1878, mû par la vapeur ou toute autre force motrice nécessitant un compartiment pour la machine, désire que l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans son bâtiment soit calculé conformément au règlement pour le mesurage du compartiment de la machine, applicables aux bâtiments anglais, au lieu de l'être en vertu des règlements danois, le compartiment de la machine sera mesuré et l'espace calculé d'après les règlements anglais.

PRÉSENT :

Sa Très Excellente Majesté la Reine en Conseil.

ATTENDU que par un acte du parlement, fait et passé dans la session du parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa présente Majesté, intitulé, "Un acte à l'effet d'amender la loi concernant l'extradition des criminels," et que par un acte du parlement fait et passé dans la session du parlement tenue dans les trente-troisième et trente-quatrième années du règne de Sa présente Majesté, intitulé : "Un acte à l'effet d'amender l'acte d'extradition de 1870," il a été entre autre choses décrété que, quant une convention a été faite avec un Etat étranger concernant la remise à tel Etat de tout accusé fugitif, Sa Majesté peut par le même ordre ou un ordre subséquent, limiter l'application de l'ordre, et le restreindre aux criminels fugitifs qui se trouvent ou qui sont soupçonnés se trouver dans la partie des domaines de Sa Majesté spécifiée dans l'ordre, et en rendre l'application sujette à telles conditions, exceptions et considérations qu'elle pourra juger désirables.

Et attendu qu'un traité a été conclu le quatre juin mil huit cent soixante-dix-huit entre Sa Majesté et le roi d'Espagne pour l'extradition mutuelle des criminels fugitifs, lequel traité est conçu dans les termes suivants :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et de l'Irlande, et Sa Majesté le Roi d'Espagne ont jugé qu'il était désirable, dans le but de mieux administrer la justice et d'assurer la répression des crimes, que les personnes prévenues ou convaincues des crimes ci-après énumérés, et ayant voulu échapper à la vindicte des lois, fussent, dans certaines circonstances, extradées réciproquement, et elles ont résolu de conclure le présent traité, et elles ont nommé leurs plénipotentiaires, savoir :—

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et de l'Irlande, le Très-Honorable Robert Arthur Talbot Gascoyne Cecil, Marquis et Comte de Salisbury, le Vicomte Cranborne, Dorset et le Baron Cecil d'Essendine, un pair du Royaume-Uni, un membre du Très-Honorable Conseil Privé de Sa Majesté, son principal secrétaire d'Etat pour les affaires étrangères :—

goire le Grand, Chevalier de première classe de l'ordre royal de l'Aigle Rouge de la Prusse, Chevalier Grand-Croix des ordres royaux de la Couronne d'Italie, de Frédéric de Wurtemburg, et d'Albert le Vaillant de la Saxe : des grands ordres ducaux de Philippe le Magnanime d'Hesse-Darmstadt, du Faucon Blanc de Saxe-Weimar, de la Couronne de Vandalie de Mecklembourg-Schwerin, et de l'ordre ducal d'Alphonse de Nassau : Chevalier Grand-Croix du Lion et du Soleil de Perse, etc., son envoyé extraordinaire et ministre plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et de l'Irlande.

Lesquels, après s'être communiqués leurs pleins pouvoirs respectifs, trouvés en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des articles suivants :—

ARTICLE I.

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et de l'Irlande s'engage à livrer, dans les circonstances et aux conditions stipulées dans le présent traité, tous individus, et Sa Majesté le Roi d'Espagne s'engage à livrer, dans les mêmes circonstances et conditions, tous individus (à la seule exception de leurs nationaux), prévenus ou condamnés par les tribunaux de l'une des deux hautes parties contractantes, des crimes et délits énumérés dans l'article second, commis dans le territoire de l'une d'elles, et qui seront trouvés dans le territoire de l'autre.

ARTICLE II.

22. La traite des esclaves de façon à constituer un délit contre les lois des deux pays.

L'extradition sera aussi accordée pour participation dans aucun de ces crimes comme étant connexe avant ou après la perpétration, pourvu que cette participation soit punissable par les lois des deux parties contractantes.

ARTICLE III.

Le présent traité s'appliquera aux crimes et délits commis avant la passation du traité ; mais aucun individu extradé ne sera poursuivi pour crime ou délit antérieur à l'extradition, autre que le crime pour lequel son extradition a été accordée.

ARTICLE IV.

Aucun individu ne sera livré si le délit au sujet auquel son extradition est demandée, est d'un caractère politique, ou s'il prouve, à la satisfaction de l'autorité compétente de l'Etat dans lequel il est, que la demande de son extradition a été faite dans le but de la poursuivre ou de le punir pour un délit politique.

ARTICLE V.

Dans les Etats de Sa Majesté le roi d'Espagne, sauf les provinces ou possessions au-delà de la mer, la demande d'extradition devra se faire comme suit :

Le représentant diplomatique de la Grande-Bretagne enverra au ministre des Affaires Etrangères (Ministro de Estado), avec la demande de l'extradition, une copie authentique et légalisée du jugement de condamnation ou de l'arrêt porté contre l'accusé, indiquant clairement, le crime ou délit qui a motivé la demande d'extradition. Les pièces seront, autant que possible, accompagnées du signalement de l'individu réclamé, et de tous les renseignements qui pourront faciliter son identification. Ces documents seront communiqués par le ministre des Affaires Etrangères au ministre de Grâce et de Justice, par le département duquel, après examen des faits et constatation qu'il y a lieu de demander l'extradition, un ordre royal sera émis accordant l'extradition et décrétant l'arrestation de l'individu réclamé et sa remise aux autorités anglaises.

En vertu du dit ordre royal le ministre de l'Intérieur (Ministro de la Gobernation) adoptera les mesures nécessaires pour l'arrestation du fugitif, et cela fait, l'individu réclamé sera mis à la disposition du représentant diplomatique qui a demandé son extradition, et il sera conduit à l'endroit de la frontière ou au port de mer où l'agent nommé à cet effet par le gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique sera prêt à en prendre soin.

Dans le cas où les pièces communiquées par le gouvernement pour l'identification de l'individu réclamé ou les renseignements obtenus par les autorités espagnoles pour le même objet seraient jugées insuffisantes, avis immédiat en sera donné au représentant diplomatique de la Grande-Bretagne, et l'individu arrêté sera détenu jusqu'à ce que le gouvernement anglais ait obtenu de nouvelles preuves pour établir son identification ou pour faire disparaître toute difficulté relative à l'examen et à la décision de l'affaire.

ARTICLE VI.

Dans les possessions de Sa Majesté Britannique, autres que les colonies ou les possessions étrangères

de Sa Majesté, la demande d'extradition devra se faire comme suit :—

Le principal secrétaire d'Etat transmettra ces pièces au principal secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique au département de l'Intérieur, qui, par un ordre sous son seing et sceau, signifiera à un magistrat de police à Londres que cette demande a été faite, et lui enjoindra, s'il y a lieu, d'émettre son mandat pour l'appréhension du fugitif sur la réception de cet ordre du secrétaire d'Etat, et sur la production des faits qui seraient suffisants dans l'opinion du magistrat, pour justifier l'émission du mandat si le crime a été commis dans le Royaume-Uni, il émettra son mandat en conséquence.

Quand l'individu réclamé aura été appréhendé, il sera traduit devant le magistrat qui a décerné le mandat ou devant un autre magistrat de police à Londres.

Si les faits alors produits suffisent pour justifier, conformément à la loi d'Angleterre, l'incarcération de l'accusé en attendant son procès, si le crime dont il est prévenu a été commis dans le Royaume-Uni, le magistrat de police l'enverra en prison en attendant le mandat du secrétaire d'Etat, pour son extradition, envoyant immédiatement au secrétaire d'Etat un certificat de l'acte d'incarcération en attendant le procès et un rapport sur le cas.

Après qu'une période d'au moins quinze jours se sera écoulée depuis l'incarcération, le secrétaire d'Etat devra décréter par un ordre sous son seing et secau, que l'accusé fugitif soit remis à la personne qui pourra être duement autorisée à le recevoir de la part du gouvernement espagnol.

(B) Dans le cas d'un individu condamné,—la procédure sera la même que celle ci-haut indiquée, si ce n'est que le mandat que le représentant diplomatique de l'Espagne doit transmettre à l'appui de sa demande devra indiquer clairement le crime ou le délit pour lequel l'individu réclamé a été condamné, ainsi que la date et le lieu de sa condamnation.

La preuve à faire devant le magistrat de police sera telle qu'elle devrait, conformément à la loi d'Angleterre, établir que le prisonnier a été convaincu du crime dont il est accusé.

(C) Les individus condamnés par jugement en défaut ou arrêt de contumace seront, dans les cas d'extradition, considérés comme des individus accusés et comme tels seront extradés.

(D) Après que le magistrat de police aura envoyé en prison l'individu accusé ou condamné en attendant l'ordre d'un Secrétaire d'Etat pour son extradition, cet individu aura le droit de demander un bref d'habeas corpus ; s'il fait cette demande, son extradition pourra être différée jusqu'après la décision de la cour sur le rapport du bref et elle ne pourra même avoir lieu que si la décision est adverse au demandant. Dans ce cas la cour pourra ordonner de suite son extradition à la personne autorisée à le recevoir, sans l'ordre d'un secrétaire d'Etat pour son extradition, ou l'envoyer en prison en attendant cet ordre.

ARTICLE VII.

Les mandats, dépositions ou déclarations sous serment, lancés ou faits dans les domaines de l'une des deux hautes parties contractantes, et copies d'iceux, et des certificats ou des actes judiciaires indiquant les faits qui ont motivé la condamnation, seront reçus comme preuves dans les procédures instituées dans les domaines de l'autre, s'ils sont censés être signés ou certifiés par un juge, magistrat ou officier du pays où ils ont été émis ou faits, pourvu que ces mandats, dépositions, déclarations, copies, certificats et actes judiciaires soient authentiqués par quelque témoin sous serment, ou qu'ils soient revêtus du sceau officiel du ministre de la Justice ou de quelqu'autre ministre d'Etat.

ARTICLE VIII.

Un malfaiteur fugitif pourra être appréhendé sur un mandat décerné par un magistrat de police, juge de paix, ou autre autorité compétente dans l'un ou l'autre pays, sur telle déclaration ou plainte, et sur telle preuve, ou après telles procédures qui, dans l'opinion de l'autorité décernant le mandat, justifieraient l'émission d'un mandat si le crime a été commis ou si l'individu est condamné dans cette partie des territoires des deux parties contractantes, où le magistrat, juge de paix, ou autre autorité compétente exerce juridiction ; pourvu toutefois que dans le Royaume-Uni, l'accusé soit traduit aussi promptement que possible devant un magistrat de police à Londres. En conformité de cet article il sera mis en liberté, en Espagne, tout comme dans le Royaume-Unis, si, dans une période de trente jours, une demande d'extradition n'a pas été faite par l'agent diplomatique de son pays, en vertu des stipulations de ce traité.

La même règle s'appliquera aux cas des individus prévenus ou convaincus des crimes ou délits mentionnés dans ce traité, et commis sur les hautes mers à bord d'un bâtiment de l'un et l'autre pays, qui pourra se rendre dans un port de l'autre.

ARTICLE IX.

Si le malfaiteur fugitif qui a été envoyé en prison n'est pas extradé et livré dans les deux mois qui suivront son incarcération, ou dans les deux mois qui suivront la décision de la Cour sur le rapport d'un bref d'habeas corpus dans le Royaume-Uni, il sera mis en liberté, à moins qu'on ne prouve qu'il y a lieu d'agir autrement.

ARTICLE X.

Dans les provinces trans-océaniques et autres territoires situés au-delà de la mer de l'une des hautes parties contractantes, le mode de procédure sera le suivant:

La demande d'extradition du malfaiteur fugitif qui s'est réfugié dans une province au-delà de la mer, colonie ou possession de l'une des deux parties contractantes, sera faite au gouverneur ou à l'autorité principale de telle province, colonie ou possession, par le principal officier consulaire de l'autre Etat dans telle province, colonie ou possession ; ou si le fugitif s'est sauvé d'une province trans-océanique, colonie ou possession de l'État, en faveur duquel l'extradition est demandée par le gouverneur ou l'autorité principale de telle province, colonie ou possession.

Dans ce cas, les dispositions de ce traité seront observées autant que possible par les gouverneurs respectifs ou les autorités principales, qui, toutefois, seront libres d'accorder l'extradition ou de soumettre la décision de l'affaire aux gouvernements de leurs pays respectifs.

ARTICLE XI.

Dans les cas où cela pourra être nécessaire, le gouvernement espagnol sera représenté devant les tribunaux anglais par les officiers en loi de la Couronne, et le gouvernement anglais devant les tribunaux espagnols par l'officier de justice appelé (Ministerio Fiscal). Les gouvernements respectifs donneront leur concours aux représentants diplomatiques qui réclament leur intervention pour la mise en lieu sûr des individus sujets à extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

La demande de l'extradition sera rejetée si l'individu réclamé a déjà été poursuivi pour le même délit dans le pays où l'extradition est demandée, ou si, depuis la perpétration des actes dont il est accusé, l'accusation ou la condamnation, l'exemption de poursuite ou de punition a été acquise par le laps de temps écoulé conformément aux lois de ce pays.

ARTICLE XIII.

Si l'individu réclamé par l'une des deux hautes parties contractantes, en vertu du présent traité, est aussi réclamé par un ou plusieurs autres pays, à raison de crimes ou délits commis sur leurs territoires respectifs, son extradition sera accordée à l'Etat qui a fait la première demande, à moins qu'il n'ait été pris quelqu'autre mesure entre les différents gouvernements pour déterminer la préférence, soit à cause de la gravité du crime ou délit, ou pour toute autre raison.

ARTICLE XIV.

Si l'individu réclamé est poursuivi, ou s'il a été convaincu d'un crime ou délit commis dans le pays où il pourra s'être réfugié, son extradition pourra être différée jusqu'à ce qu'il ait été élargi suivant le cour ordinaire de la loi.

Dans le cas où il ne serait pas poursuivi ou détenu dans tel pays, a cause des obligations contractées envers des particuliers, l'extradition aura lieu cependant.

ARTICLE XV.

Tout article trouvé en la possession de l'individu réclamé à l'époque de son arrestation, sera saisi si l'autorité compétente le juge à propos, afin qu'il soit livré avec sa propre personne à l'époque où a lieu l'extradition. Cette remise ne sera pas restreinte à la propriété ou aux articles obtenus par vol ou par une banqueroute frauduleuse, mais comprendra tout ce qui pourra servir comme preuve du crime ou délit, et elle se fera même quand l'extradition, après avoir été accordée, ne pourra avoir lieu par suite de la fuite ou de la mort de l'individu réclamé.

Les droits des tierces parties quant à la dite propriété ou aux dits articles sont néanmoins réservés.

ARTICLE XVI.

Les hautes parties contractantes renoncent à toute réclamation pour le remboursement des frais encourus par elles par suite de l'appréhension ou de l'entretien de l'individu à extrader, et de son transport jusqu'à la frontière ; elles consentent mutuellement à payer ces frais elles-mêmes.

ARTICLE XVII.

Le présent traité sera ratifié et les ratifications seront échangés à Londres aussitôt que possible. Il sera exécutoire deux jours après sa publication, conformément aux lois des pays respectifs, et chacune des parties contractantes pourra en tout temps abroger le traité en donnant à l'autre un avis de six mois de son intention à cet effet.

En témoignage de quoi les plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé ce traité et ont apposé les sceaux de leurs armes.

Fait à Londres, le quatrième jour de juin dans l'année de Notre Seigneur, mil huit cent soixante-et-huit.

(L.S.) SALISBURY,

Et attendu que les ratifications du dit traité ont été échangées à Londres, le vingt et un courant.

C'est pourquoi, maintenant, Sa Majesté, par et de l'avis de son Conseil Privé, et en vertu de l'autorité à elle conférée, par les actes précités, ordonne, et il est par les présentes ordonné, que, depuis et après le neuvième jour de décembre mil huit cent soixante-dix-huit, les dits actes s'appliqueront quant au dit traité au roi d'Espagne,

Avis du Gouvernement.

CERTIFICATS DE CAPACITÉ POUR LE SERVICE DES YACHTS.

EN vertu d'un ordre du conseil en date du 17 février 1879, des certificats canadiens de capacité pourront être octroyés, conformément aux dispositions de l'acte canadien, 33 Vict., chap. 17, aux personnes en Canada qui sont capitaines de leurs propres yachts et possèdent les qualités nécessaires, sujettes aux règlements suivants, savoir :—

RÈGLEMENTS.

1o. L'examen est purement volontaire et est restreint aux personnes qui commandent leurs yachts pour leur propre agrément. Un capitaine d'un yacht qui n'en est pas aussi le propriétaire, ne saurait être admis à l'examen.

2o. Il sera émis des certificats d'une seule catégorie, qui donneront droit au détenteur de commander son propre yacht, qu'il navigue à l'étranger ou dans les eaux nord-américaines. Le certificat ne permettra pas au détenteur de commander aucun bâtiment si ce n'est le yacht dont il est alors le propriétaire.

3o. Les candidats ne sont pas tenus d'avoir servi pendant un certain temps sur mer, car on croit que leur connaissance de la mer sera suffisamment mise à l'épreuve par l'examen qu'ils auront à subir au sujet de leurs connaissances nautiques.

4o. Il ne sera pas nécessaire de produire des preuves de service.

5o. Une somme de $10 sera exigible pour l'examen tout comme pour l'examen d'un capitaine d'un navire allant à l'étranger.

CONNAISSANCES NÉCESSAIRES.

Navigation.—Il doit comprendre les cinq premières règles de l'arithmétique et l'usage des logarithmes. Il doit pouvoir faire le service d'une journée complète de travail, y compris les portées et distances d'un port à un autre au moyen de la méthode de Mercator, rectifier la déclinaison du soleil pour la longitude, et trouver sa latitude pour l'altitude méridienne du soleil. Il doit pouvoir observer et computer l'amplitude du soleil et en déduire les variations de la boussole. Il doit pouvoir indiquer l'endroit où se trouve le bâtiment sur la carte, tant par la portée des objets connus que par la latitude et la longitude. Il doit pouvoir déterminer l'erreur d'un sextant, et la rectifier ; il doit aussi pouvoir trouver l'époque des hautes eaux avec les changements qui en résultent. Il doit pouvoir observer les azimuths et en computer les variations, comparer les chronomètres et mesurer le temps, et trouver par eux la longitude d'après une observation du soleil ; il doit pouvoir constater la latitude par la seule altitude du soleil à la hauteur du méridien, et de pouvoir se servir et régler le sextant par le soleil. Il doit pouvoir trouver la latitude par une étoile, etc. Il sera tenu de répondre par écrit à certaines questions quant à l'effet du fer du bâtiment sur la boussole, et quant aux méthodes de déterminer les erreurs qui en résultent. Il sera interrogé sur les lois des marées qui lui sont nécessaires pour lui permettre de suivre une route, et pour comparer ses sondages avec les profondeurs indiquées sur les cartes. Il doit posséder une connaissance suffisante des Actes de la marine marchande, ainsi que des mesures nécessaires pour empêcher et contrôler le scorbut à bord du bâtiment. Il doit connaître les phares principaux sur la côte qu'il fréquente habituellement, ou qui devront lui être utiles.

En fait de navigation, il devra comprendre l'opération de la ligne de loch, de l'ampoulette et du plomb de sonde ; et subir un examen satisfaisant d'après le livret à couverture verte publié par la Chambre de Commerce de Londres, au sujet de la route des bâtiments à vapeur et à voiles, ainsi que des lumières et des signaux d'alarme ; en outre, il devra subir un examen sur le " Code international des signaux, à l'usage des nations," et il faudra qu'il sache comment amarrer et démarrer, comment tenir l'ancre libre et comment l'enlever. Il sera aussi questionné sur l'usage et l'arrangement du mortier et des fusées dans le cas où le vaisseau échoue, sur la direction d'un bâtiment durant les tempêtes, sur la manière de replier et déplier les voiles, de jeter un vaisseau sous le vent de la côte, et de protéger les mâts lorsqu'il arrive quelque accident au beaupré. Il sera également interrogé sur son habileté à construire des gouvernails de rechange et des radeaux, et à pourvoir à la sûreté de l'équipage, en cas de naufrage.

Si le candidat n'a servi qu'à bord d'un vaisseau équipé à l'avant et à l'arrière, et ignore la direction d'un vaisseau mâté à trait carré, il obtiendra un certificat sur lequel les mots " vaisseau équipé à l'avant et à l'arrière " seront inscrits. Et ce certificat ne lui permettra pas de commander un vaisseau à trait carré.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit:

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba:

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district; ou s'il n'y parait pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces:

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires; et mentionner de plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

72. Quiconque a l'intention de demander un bill de divorce, doit donner avis de son intention, et spécifier d'avec qui et pour quelle cause il veut divorcer. L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y parait pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.

THE MELBOURNE INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, 1880.

In accordance with a Commission issued under the great seal of the Colony of Victoria, and with the co-operation of the Imperial Government of Our Gracious Sovereign the Queen, an International Exhibition of Arts, Manufactures, and Agricultural and Industrial Products of all Nations will be opened at Melbourne on the 1st day of October, 1880, and will close on the 31st day of March, 1881.

The Exhibition will be held in buildings specially erected for the purpose in Carlton Gardens, centrally situated in the City of Melbourne, and the cost of erecting such buildings, and all expenses incidental to the Exhibition, will be defrayed out of funds voted by the Parliament of Victoria.

The Commissioners are empowered to invite the British, Foreign, and Colonial Governments to take part in this Exhibition, and they will be glad to learn that steps have been taken to provide for the representation of every country and colony thereat.

The fact that Australasia has been represented at all the great Exhibitions of the world since their inception in the year 1851, and the advance she has made in productive industry, the extent of her commercial relations, and the high position to which her imports and exports have attained, indicate that she has now reached the period when she may profitably invite the great manufacturing countries to send the most complete products of their skilled industry to a people who are in a position to become not only good customers but generous competitors.

1. Applications for space, with full particulars, are invited as early as possible. Copies of the official form of entry can be obtained upon application to the Secretary to the Commissioners.

2. Excepting under the circumstances specified under Article 4, applications for space must be made through the representatives of the country or colony to which the applicants belong.

3. Governments intending to take part in this Exhibition are requested to forward an intimation to that effect not later than the 1st of June, 1879.

4. In the event of no representatives being appointed by the country or colony to which an intending exhibitor belongs, he can communicate direct with the Secretary.

5. Applications for space should be made not later than the 30th day of June, 1879.

6. British, Foreign and Colonial Governments, or Commissioners appointed by them, are requested to inform the Melbourne Commission not later than the 1st day of January, 1880, whether they require any increase or diminution of the space offered them, and the amount. They are also requested to state whether there will be any exhibits for which special space should be provided, together with a description showing their nature and quantity.

7. Before the 1st day of June, 1880, the representatives of countries or colonies should furnish approximate plans, showing the manner of allotting the space assigned to them, and lists of their exhibitors, and other information necessary for the production of the Official Catalogue.

8. Commissioners representing countries or colonies, and private exhibitors, may adopt one of three courses, viz:—

(b) Or consign their exhibits to
"The Secretary International Exhibition 1880,
"Melbourne, Australia,"
with specific instructions as to what is desired.

(c) Or, having previously forwarded an entry to the Melbourne Commission, they can forward the goods, together with invoices and descriptions, to any of the following firms or companies:—

London—Messrs. James McEwan & Co., 27 Lombard-street; or to Messrs. M'Ilwraight, M'Eachran & Co., Leadenhall-street.
Liverpool—Messrs. John Swire & Sons.
Glasgow—Messrs. Aitken, Lilburne & Co.
Antwerp—Messrs. Jules Renard & Co.
New York—Messrs. R. W. Cameron & Co.
San Francisco—Pacific Mail Company.
All Ports where the Company has Agencies—The Peninsular and Oriental Company.

9. Packages forwarded from countries and colonies represented at the Exhibition should be addressed—

To the Commissioner for.....
at the International Exhibition of 1880,
Melbourne,
Victoria,
Australia,

and have two labels bearing the flag of the country to which the exhibitor belongs; or, where no representative has been appointed:—

and two labels, affixed to different but not opposite sides of the package, giving the following information:—(1) The country from which it comes. (2) Name or firm of exhibitor. (3) Residence of the exhibitor. (4) Group and class to which exhibits belong. (5) Total number of packages sent by same exhibitor. (6) Serial number of that particular package. Each package must contain a list of the exhibits it contains.

Packages from foreign countries containing goods intended for the Exhibition must likewise have painted on them, as distinctive marks, the letters

M.I.E. surrounded by a circle

Packages from foreign countries must all be marked in such a way as to show distinctly whence they come, viz., with the colours and devices of their national flag. Foreign Commissioners are particularly requested to forward to the Melbourne Commission, as soon as possible, copies of the form of address and the distinguishing marks which they have severally adopted.

10. In cases where exhibits are forwarded to Melbourne through any of the above-named agents of the Commission, all expenses of freight, marine insurance, &c., should be prepaid by the exhibitor, but if that be inconvenient, the exhibits will be forwarded, and the charges and freight paid by the agents. The sum advanced by the agents will be regarded as a first charge upon the exhibits, to be deducted from the net proceeds, in the event of their being sold. Should such exhibits, however, not be sold, but be claimed by the exhibitor or his authorised agent, at the close of the Exhibition, then such sums as may have been disbursed by the Commission or any of its agents must be paid before such goods are delivered.

11. Customs entries, transportation, receiving, unpacking, and arranging the products for exhibition will, if required by the exhibitor, be undertaken by the Commission, at the expense of the exhibitor.

12. Arrangements will be made for transporting goods from the port of Melbourne, or the several railway stations, to the Exhibition grounds at a fixed rate of charges.

13. Exhibits will be admitted free of duty. The removal of goods, except under special circumstances, will not be permitted prior to the close of the Exhibition. Facilities will be given for the sale of exhibits, delivery to be made after the close of the Exhibition.

14. The protection of inventions capable of being patented and of designs is secured by the patent laws of Victoria.

15. The placing or fixing of heavy articles, requiring special foundations or adjustment, should begin by special arrangement as soon as the progress of the work upon the Exhibition Buildings will permit. The general reception of articles in the Exhibition Buildings will commence on 1st June, 1880, and no articles will be admitted after 31st August, 1880. The plans for the display and accommodation of such objects as may require either special arrangements or exceptional works for their erection must receive the approval of the Commission before they are executed, and the works must be carried out under the supervision of its agents. The special preparations of which mention has been made will be commenced as soon as the buildings and various annexes are sufficiently advanced. The works of general fitting-up must be commenced not later than the 1st of May, 1880, and must be ready to receive goods before the 15th day of July, 1880.

16. Space assigned to countries and colonies, and not occupied on the first day of September, 1880, will revert to the Commission, and will be subject to rearrangement.

17. If exhibits are not intended for competition it must be so stated by the Exhibitors, and they will be excluded from examination by the International Jurors.

18. An Official Catalogue will be published in English by the Commission, by which the sale of Catalogues is reserved. Every country and colony will, however, have the right of producing at its own expense, but in its own language only, a special Catalogue of the objects exhibited in its section. No work of art, nor any article whatever, exhibited in the buildings, parks, or gardens, may be drawn, copied, or reproduced in any manner whatsoever, without the permission of the exhibitor. The Commission reserves the right of authorizing the production of general views.

19. The representatives of countries and colonies, when appointed, will be allowed to group their exhibits as they may think fit in that portion of the Exhibition Buildings allotted to the country or colony which they represent.

20. Exhibits, from any country or colony, whose Government is not represented will be grouped according to some one of the following classes. The same direction will be followed in the Catalogue:—

1. Works of art.
2. Education and instruction—Apparatus and processes of the liberal arts.
3. Furniture and accessories.
4. Textile fabrics, clothing and accessories.
5. Raw and manufactured products.
6. Machinery—Apparatus and processes used in the mechanical industries.
7. Alimentary products.
8. Agriculture.
9. Horticulture.

10. Mining industries—Machinery and products.

Each of these groups is divided into classes, according to the system of general classification annexed to these regulations (Appendix). This Appendix includes for each class a summary enumeration of the objects which it will comprise.

21. A limited quantity of steam and water power will be supplied gratuitously. The quantity of each will be settled definitely at the time of the allotment of space. The Commissioners desire to encourage the display of machinery in motion, and they will endeavor to provide adequate power to meet all reasonable demands. Any power required by the Exhibitor in excess of that allowed, will be furnished by the Commission at a moderate price. Demands for such excess of power must be settled prior to the 31st August, 1880.

22. By the introduction of steam power it is proposed to afford facilities for presenting not only the machinery for any given manufactures, but the manufactures themselves; and it is further intended that space shall be afforded for the production in the Exhibition of interesting objects by manual labor.

23. Exhibitors must provide at their own cost all show-cases, shelving, counters, fittings, &c., which they may require; and all shaftings, pulleys, belting, &c., for the trees and measures of power from the main shafts; but the Commission is prepared, if required, and upon being furnished with full particulars, to make arrangements for the construction of show-cases by contract at a price per cubic foot, the cost to be borne by the Exhibitor using the same. All artistic decorations and arrangements must be approved by the Commission.

24. The Commission reserves the right of rejecting or returning any proposed exhibit.

25. The following special regulations are framed for the reception and admission of works of art. The works admissible include the five classes mentioned below:—

1. Paintings.
2. Drawings, water-colors, crayon drawings, miniatures, enamels, porcelain, designs for stained glass windows (with the exception of those which merely represent subjects of ornamentation) and mosaic work.
3. Sculpture and die-sinking, and engraving on precious stones.
4. Architecture.
5. Engraving and lithography.

26. The following are excluded:—

1. Unframed pictures or drawings.
2. Sculpture in unbaked clay.

27. The duty of deciding upon the admission of works of art will devolve upon a special jury. Special and suitable rooms will be reserved for the exhibition of such ancient pictures and works of art as may be admitted by a special jury. Other regulations will give information as to the despatch and reception of works of art.

28. Facilities will be given, upon application to the Commission, for the erection of special constructions, whether in the buildings or grounds.

29. The Commission will take precautions for the safe preservation of all objects in the Exhibition, but will be in no way responsible for damage or loss of any kind, or accidents by fire or otherwise, however caused.

30. Facilities will be afforded the representatives of countries and colonies, and private exhibitors, for insuring their goods; and they may also employ watchmen of their own choice to guard their goods during the hours the Exhibition is open to the public. The appointment of such watchmen will be subject to the approval of the Commission. These persons shall wear a special dress or distinctive badge, and they will always have the power of calling the police to their aid.

31. Articles that are in any way dangerous or offensive, or injurious to public decency and morality, will not be admitted into the exhibition.

32. Sketches, drawings, photographs, or other reproductions of articles exhibited, will only be allowed upon the joint consent of the Exhibitor and the Commissioners: but views of portions of the building may be made, upon the sanction of the Commission alone.

33. The following is the system under which the awards will be made:—

The awards shall be based upon written reports adopted by the Jurors.

The Jurors shall be selected for their known qualifications and character, and shall be experts in the departments to which they are especially assigned; the British, Foreign, and Colonial Jurors shall be appointed by the representatives of each country or colony exhibiting. The Jurors for Victoria will be appointed by the Melbourne Commission.

Jurors will be reimbursed their personal expenses.

Reports and awards shall be based upon inherent and comparative merit, the elements of merit being held to include considerations relating to originality, invention, discovery, utility, quality, skill, workmanship, fitness for the purposes intended, adaptation to public wants, economy, and cost.

Each report shall be delivered to the Commission as soon as completed.

Awards shall consist of gold, silver, and bronze medals, and a certificate of honourable mention, together with a special report of the Jurors on the subject of the award.

Each Exhibitor shall have the right to produce and publish the report awarded to him, but the Commission reserves the right to publish and dispose of all reports in the manner it thinks best for public information, and to embody and distribute the reports as records of the Exhibition.

34. Immediately after the close of the Exhibition, exhibitors or their duly appointed agents shall remove their effects and complete such removal by the 1st June, 1881. Goods then remaining will be removed by the Commission, and sold by auction, or otherwise disposed of, under the direction of the Commission, and the net proceeds handed to the Exhibitors or their duly-appointed agents.

35. Every person who becomes an exhibitor thereby acknowledges, and undertakes to observe, the rules and regulations established for the government of the Exhibition.

Information upon any question of details can be obtained upon application to

Sir,

I have the honour to transmit to you, for information and publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of an Order of the Queen in Council of the 30th December last, under the Merchant Shipping Acts, modifying a previous Order in Council of the 29th of February, 1868, exempting from re-measurement in this country Danish Vessels, the Certificates of Danish Nationality and Registry of which are dated on and after the 1st of October, 1867.

It appears that the Board of Trade did not furnish this Department, as in the present instance, with a copy of the Order in Council of the 29th of February, 1868, for transmission to the various Colonial Governments, I therefore enclose copies of that Order which (if not already published in the Colony) should be published at the same time as the amending Order.

In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba.

A notice inserted in the Canada Gazette, in the English and French languages, and in one newspaper in the English, and in one in the French language in the District affected, or in both languages in one paper, if there be but one in the said District, or if there be no paper published therein, then, in both languages, in a paper in the nearest District, in which a newspaper is published.

(Circulaire.)

Downing Street,
27 janvier 1879.

Monsieur, — J'ai l'honneur de vous transmettre pour votre information et pour la faire publier dans la colonie sous votre gouvernement, une copie d'un ordre de la Reine en Conseil, en date du 30 décembre dernier, en vertu des actes concernant la marine marchande, modifiant un précédent ordre du conseil du 20 février 1868, exemptant de re-jaugeage dans ce pays les bâtiments danois, dont les certificats de nationalité danoise et d'enregistrement sont datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867.

Il appert que la chambre de commerce n'a pas communiqué à ce département, comme dans le cas actuel, une copie d'un ordre du conseil en date du 20 février 1878, pour être transmise aux différents gouvernements coloniaux, c'est pourquoi j'inclus des copies de cet ordre, qui (si elles ne sont pas déjà publiées dans la colonie) devraient être publiées en même temps comme l'ordre le modifiant.

J'ai l'honneur d'être,
Monsieur,
Votre très-obéissant et humble serviteur,
M. E. HICKS BEACH.

L'officier administrant
le gouvernement du Canada.

A la Cour à Osborne House, Ile de Wight, le 29 février 1868.

PRÉSENT :

Sa Très Excellente Majesté la Reine en Conseil.

Attendu que par l'"Acte amendant l'acte concernant la marine marchande de 1862" il est décrété que "lorsqu'il sera démontré à Sa Majesté "que les règlements concernant le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands alors en vigueur en vertu de l'acte "principal, ont été adoptés par le gouvernement "d'un pays étranger et sont exécutoires dans ce "pays, il sera loisible à Sa Majesté, par ordre du conseil, de décréter que les bâtiments de tels pays "étrangers, seront réputés avoir le tonnage indique "dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autres "pièces nationales et qu'il ne sera pas nécessaire que "ces bâtiments soient jaugés de nouveau dans aucun port ou endroit dans les domaines de Sa Majesté, mais ces bâtiments seront réputés avoir le "tonnage indiqué dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autres pièces, de la même manière, au "même degré, et pour les mêmes fins pour lesquelles "le tonnage indiqué dans le certificat d'enregistrement des bâtiments anglais est réputé être le tonnage de ces bâtiments."

Et attendu qu'il a été démontré à Sa Majesté que les règlements concernant le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands maintenant en vigueur en vertu de "l'Acte concernant la marine marchande de 1854" ont été adoptés par le gouvernement de Sa Majesté le Roi du Danemark, et sont en vigueur dans ce pays, et que ces règlements sont exécutoires le 1er jour d'octobre mil huit cent soixante-sept,—

Il a plu à Sa Majesté, par les présentes, de l'avis du Conseil Privé, de décréter que les bâtiments du Danemark dont les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement, datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867, seront réputés être le tonnage indiqué dans les dits certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement.

ARTHUR HELPS.

(Pour l'Ordre en Conseil de 1878, voir l'avis du ministère de la Marine et des Pêcheries, plus bas.

AVIS RELATIF AU TONNAGE INTERNATIONAL.

La copie suivante d'un ordre récemment émis par Sa Majesté en conseil modifie un ordre précédent du conseil, en date du 29 février 1868, exemptant les bâtiments danois d'être jaugés de nouveau, pourvu que les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement soient datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867.

WM. SMITH,
Député ministre de la Marine.

A la cour à Osborne House, Ile de Wight, le 30ème jour de décembre 1878.

PRÉSENT :

Sa Très Excellente Majesté la Reine en conseil :

Attendu que par "l'Acte amendé concernant "la marine marchande de 1862," il est décrété "que chaque fois qu'il sera démontré à Sa Majesté "que les règlements concernant le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands alors en vigueur en vertu de l'acte "principal, ont été adoptés par le gouvernement "d'un pays étranger et sont exécutoires dans ce "pays, il sera loisible à Sa Majesté, par ordre du conseil, de décréter que les bâtiments de tels pays "étrangers, seront réputés avoir le tonnage indiqué "dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autres "pièces nationales et qu'il ne sera pas nécessaire que "ces bâtiments soient jaugés de nouveau dans aucun port ou endroit dans les domaines de Sa Majesté, mais ces bâtiments seront réputés avoir le "tonnage indiqué dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autres pièces, de la même manière, au "même degré, et pour les mêmes fins, pour lesquelles "le tonnage indiqué dans le certificat d'enregistrement des bâtiments anglais est réputé être le tonnage de ces bâtiments ;"

Et attendu que par "l'Acte concernant la marine marchande de 1876," il est décrété "que quand Sa "Majesté a le pouvoir en vertu de "l'Acte concernant la marine marchande de 1854," ou tout acte "passé ou qui sera adopté amendant le dit acte, de "passer un ordre du conseil, il sera loisible à Sa "Majesté de temps à autre de révoquer, d'altérer ou "d'ajouter à tout ordre ainsi fait ;"

Et attendu que par un ordre du conseil, daté du 29 février 1868 il a plu à Sa Majesté, à laquelle il a été prouvé que les dits règlements pour le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands ont été adoptés par le gouvernement de Sa Majesté, le roi du Danemark, de décréter que les bâtiments du Danemark, les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement, datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867, seront réputés être le tonnage indiqué dans les dits certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement ;

Et attendu que certaines modifications ont été faites récemment dans les règlements relatifs au tonnage des bâtiments marchands, qui sont en vigueur au Danemark, par lesquels, depuis et après le 1er jour d'octobre 1878, l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans certains navires sera calculé d'un mode différent de celui qui est en vigueur dans ce pays ;

Et attendu qu'il a été démontré à Sa Majesté qu'il est désirable de modifier le dit ordre du conseil, autant qu'il s'applique ou se rattache au mode de calculer l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans les navires danois,—il a plu à Sa Majesté par et de l'avis du Conseil Privé de décréter, pour ce qui concerne les bâtiments danois, que si le propriétaire ou le capitaine d'aucun navire marchand, appartenant au dit royaume du Danemark, et jaugé après le dit 1er jour d'octobre 1878, mû par la vapeur ou toute autre force motrice nécessitant un compartiment pour la machine, désire que l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans son bâtiment soit calculé conformément au règlement pour le mesurage du compartiment de la machine, applicables aux bâtiments anglais, au lieu de l'être en vertu des règlements danois, le compartiment de la machine sera mesuré et l'espace calculé d'après les règlements anglais.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit:

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba:

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces:

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires; et mentionner de plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

72. Quiconque a l'intention de demander un bill de divorce, doit donner avis de son intention, et spécifier d'avec qui et pour quelle cause il veut divorcer. L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces,) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y parait pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.

ROBERT LEMOINE,
Greffier du Sénat.

THE MELBOURNE INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, 1880.

In accordance with a Commission issued under the great seal of the Colony of Victoria, and with the co-operation of the Imperial Government of Our Graeious Sovereign the Queen, an International Exhibition of Arts, Manufactures, and Agricultural and Industrial Products of all Nations will be opened at Melbourne on the 1st day of October, 1880, and will close on the 31st day of March, 1881.

The Exhibition will be held in buildings specially erected for the purpose in Carlton Gardens, centrally situated in the City of Melbourne, and the cost of erecting such buildings, and all expenses incidental to the Exhibition, will be defrayed out of funds voted by the Parliament of Victoria.

The Commissioners are empowered to invite the British, Foreign, and Colonial Governments to take part in this Exhibition, and they will be glad to learn that steps have been taken to provide for the representation of every country and colony thereat.

The fact that Australasia has been represented at all the great Exhibitions of the world since their inception in the year 1851, and the advance she has made in productive industry, the extent of her commercial relations, and the high position to which her imports and exports have attained, indicate that she has now reached the period when she may profitably invite the great manufacturing countries to send the most complete products of their skilled industry to a people who are in a position to become not only good customers but generous competitors.

1. Applications for space, with full particulars, are invited as early as possible. Copies of the official form of entry can be obtained upon application to the Secretary to the Commissioners.

2. Excepting under the circumstances specified under Article 4, applications for space must be made through the representatives of the country or colony to which the applicants belong.

3. Governments intending to take part in this Exhibition are requested to forward an intimation to that effect not later than the 1st of June, 1879.

4. In the event of no representatives being appointed by the country or colony to which an intending exhibitor belongs, he can communicate direct with the Secretary.

5. Applications for space should be made not later than the 30th day of June, 1879.

6. British, Foreign and Colonial Governments, or Commissioners appointed by them, are requested to inform the Melbourne Commission not later than the 1st day of January, 1880, whether they require any increase or diminution of the space offered them, and the amount. They are also requested to state whether there will be any exhibits for which special space should be provided, together with a description showing their nature and quantity.

7. Before the 1st day of June, 1880, the representatives of countries or colonies should furnish approximate plans, showing the manner of allotting the space assigned to them, and lists of their exhibitors, and other information necessary for the production of the Official Catalogue.

8. Commissioners representing countries or colonies, and private exhibitors, may adopt one of three courses, viz:—

(a) They can ship their exhibits direct to Melbourne, and make their own arrangement for their shipment, reception, and exhibition.

(b) Or consign their exhibits to
"The Secretary International Exhibition 1880,
"Melbourne, Australia,"
with specific instructions as to what is desired.

(c) Or, having previously forwarded an entry to the Melbourne Commission, they can forward the goods, together with invoices and descriptions, to any of the following firms or companies:—

London—Messrs. James McEwan & Co., 27 Lombard-street; or to Messrs. M'Ilwraight, M'Eachran & Co., Leadenhall-street.
Liverpool—Messrs. John Swire & Sons.
Glasgow—Messrs. Aitken, Lilburne & Co.
Antwerp—Messrs. Jules Renard & Co.
New York—Messrs. R. W. Cameron & Co.
San Francisco—Pacific Mail Company.
All Ports where the Company has Agencies—The Peninsular and Oriental Company.

9. Packages forwarded from countries and colonies represented at the Exhibition should be addressed—

To the Commissioner for.....
at the International Exhibition of 1880,
Melbourne,
Victoria,
Australia,

and have two labels bearing the flag of the country to which the exhibitor belongs; or, where no representative has been appointed:—

To the Secretary
International Exhibition of 1880,
Melbourne,
Victoria,
Australia,

and two labels, affixed to different but not opposite sides of the package, giving the following information:—(1) The country from which it comes. (2) Name or firm of exhibitor. (3) Residence of the exhibitor (4) Group and class to which exhibits belong. (5) Total number of packages sent by same exhibitor. (6) Serial number of that particular package. Each package must contain a list of the exhibits it contains.

Packages from foreign countries containing goods intended for the Exhibition must likewise have painted on them, as distinctive marks, the letters

M.I.E. surrounded by a circle

Packages from foreign countries must all be marked in such a way as to show distinctly whence they come, viz., with the colours and devices of their national flag. Foreign Commissioners are particularly requested to forward to the Melbourne Commission, as soon as possible, copies of the form of address and the distinguishing marks which they have severally adopted.

10. In cases where exhibits are forwarded to Melbourne through any of the above-named agents of the Commission, all expenses of freight, marine insurance, &c., should be prepaid by the exhibitor, but if that be inconvenient, the exhibits will be forwarded, and the charges and freight paid by the agents. The sum advanced by the agents will be regarded as a first charge upon the exhibits, to be deducted from the net proceeds, in the event of their being sold. Should such exhibits, however, not be sold, but be claimed by the exhibitor or his authorised agent, at the close of the Exhibition, then such sums as may have been disbursed by the Commission or any of its agents must be paid before such goods are delivered.

11. Customs entries, transportation, receiving, unpacking, and arranging the products for exhibition will, if required by the exhibitor, be undertaken by the Commission, at the expense of the exhibitor.

12. Arrangements will be made for transporting goods from the port of Melbourne, or the several railway stations, to the Exhibition grounds at a fixed rate of charges.

13. Exhibits will be admitted free of duty. The removal of goods, except under special circumstances, will not be permitted prior to the close of the Exhibition. Facilities will be given for the sale of exhibits, delivery to be made after the close of the Exhibition.

14. The protection of inventions capable of being patented and of designs is secured by the patent laws of Victoria.

15. The placing or fixing of heavy articles, requiring special foundations or adjustment, should begin by special arrangement as soon as the progress of the work upon the Exhibition Buildings will permit. The general reception of articles in the Exhibition Buildings will commence on 1st June, 1880, and no articles will be admitted after 31st August, 1880. The plans for the display and accommodation of such objects as may require either special arrangements or exceptional works for their erection must receive the approval of the Commission before they are executed, and the works must be carried out under the supervision of its agents. The special preparations to which mention has been made will be commenced as soon as the building and various annexes are sufficiently advanced. The works of general fitting up must be commenced not later than the 1st of May, 1880, and must be ready to receive goods before the 15th day of July, 1880.

16. Space assigned to countries and colonies, and not occupied on the first day of September, 1880, will revert to the Commission, and will be subject to rearrangement.

17. If exhibits are not intended for competition it must be so stated by the Exhibitors, and they will be excluded from examination by the International Jurors.

18. An Official Catalogue will be published in English by the Commission, by which the sale of Catalogues is reserved. Every country and colony will, however, have the right of producing at its own expense, but in its own language only, a special Catalogue of the objects exhibited in its section. No work of art, nor any article whatever, exhibited in the buildings, parks, or gardens, may be drawn, copied, or reproduced in any manner whatsoever, without the permission of the exhibitor. The Commission reserves the right of authorizing the production of general views.

19. The representatives of countries and colonies, when appointed, will be allowed to group their exhibits as they may think fit in that portion of the Exhibition Buildings allotted to the country or colony which they represent.

20. Exhibits, from any country or colony, whose Government is not represented will be grouped according to some one of the following classes. The same direction will be followed in the Catalogue:—

1. Works of art.
2. Education and instruction—Apparatus and processes of the liberal arts.
3. Furniture and accessories.
4. Textile fabrics, clothing and accessories.
5. Raw and manufactured products.
6. Machinery—Apparatus and processes used in the mechanical industries.
7. Alimentary products.
8. Agriculture.
9. Horticulture.
10. Mining industries—Machinery and products.

Each of these groups is divided into classes, according to the system of general classification annexed to these regulations (Appendix). This Appendix includes for each class a summary enumeration of the objects which it will comprise.

21. A limited quantity of steam and water power will be supplied gratuitously. The quantity of each will be settled definitely at the time of the allotment of space. The Commissioners desire to encourage the display of machinery in motion, and they will endeavor to provide adequate power to meet all reasonable demands. Any power required by the Exhibitor in excess of that allowed, will be furnished by the Commission at a moderate price. Demands for such excess of power must be settled prior to the 31st August, 1880.

22. By the introduction of steam power it is proposed to afford facilities for presenting not only the machinery for any given manufactures, but the manufactures themselves; and it is further intended that space shall be afforded for the production in the Exhibition of interesting objects by manual labor.

23. Exhibitors must provide at their own cost all show-cases, shelving, counters, fittings, &c., which they may require; and all shaftings, pulleys, belting, &c., for the traces and measures of power from the main shafts; but the Commission is prepared, if required, and upon being furnished with full particulars, to make arrangements for the construction of show-cases by contract at a price per cubic foot, the cost to be borne by the Exhibitor using the same. All artistic decorations and arrangements must be approved by the Commission.

24. The Commission reserves the right of rejecting or returning any proposed exhibit.

25. The following special regulations are framed for the reception and admission of works of art. The works admissible include the five classes mentioned below :—

1. Paintings.
2. Drawings, water-colors, crayon drawings, miniatures, enamels, porcelain, designs for stained glass windows (with the exception of those which merely represent subjects of ornamentation) and mosaic work.
3. Sculpture and die-sinking, and engraving on precious stones.
4. Architecture.
5. Engraving and lithography.

26. The following are excluded :—

1. Unframed pictures or drawings.
2. Sculpture in unbaked clay.

27. The duty of deciding upon the admission of works of art will devolve upon a special jury. Special and suitable rooms will be reserved for the exhibition of such ancient pictures and works of art as may be admitted by a special jury. Other regulations will give information as to the despatch and reception of works of art.

28. Facilities will be given, upon application to the Commission, for the erection of special constructions, whether in the buildings or grounds.

29. The Commission will take precautions for the safe preservation of all objects in the Exhibition, but will be in no way responsible for damage or loss of any kind, or accidents by fire or otherwise, however caused.

30. Facilities will be afforded the representatives of countries and colonies, and private exhibitors, for insuring their goods; and they may also employ watchmen of their own choice to guard their goods during the hours the Exhibition is open to the public. The appointment of such watchmen will be subject to the approval of the Commission. These persons shall wear a special dress or distinctive badge, and they will always have the power of calling the police to their aid.

31. Articles that are in any way dangerous or offensive, or injurious to public decency and morality, will not be admitted into the exhibition.

32. Sketches, drawings, photographs, or other reproductions of articles exhibited, will only be allowed upon the joint consent of the Exhibitor and the Commissioners; but views of portions of the building may be made, upon the sanction of the Commission alone.

33. The following is the system under which the awards will be made :—

The awards shall be based upon written reports adopted by the Jurors.

The Jurors shall be selected for their known qualifications and character, and shall be experts in the departments to which they are especially assigned; the British, Foreign, and Colonial Jurors shall be appointed by the representatives of each country or colony exhibiting. The Jurors for Victoria will be appointed by the Melbourne Commission.

Jurors will be reimbursed their personal expenses.

Reports and awards shall be based upon inherent and comparative merit, the elements of merit being held to include considerations relating to originality, invention, discovery, utility, quality, skill, workmanship, fitness for the purposes intended, adaptation to public wants, economy, and cost.

Each report shall be delivered to the Commission as soon as completed.

Awards shall consist of gold, silver, and bronze medals, and a certificate of honourable mention, together with a special report of the Jurors on the subject of the award.

Each Exhibitor shall have the right to produce and publish the report awarded to him, but the Commission reserves the right to publish and dispose of all reports in the manner it thinks best for public information, and to embody and distribute the reports as records of the Exhibition.

34. Immediately after the close of the Exhibition, exhibitors or their duly appointed agents shall remove their effects and complete such removal by the 1st June, 1881. Goods then remaining will be removed by the Commission, and sold by auction, or otherwise disposed of, under the direction of the Commission, and the net proceeds handed to the Exhibitors or their duly-appointed agents.

35. Every person who becomes an exhibitor thereby acknowledges, and undertakes to observe, the rules and regulations established for the government of the Exhibition.

36. The Commission reserves the right to alter, explain, amend, or add to these regulations whatever may be deemed necessary.

Sir,

I have the honour to transmit to you, for information and publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of an Order of the Queen in Council of the 30th December last, under the Merchant Shipping Acts, modifying a previous Order in Council of the 29th of February, 1868, exempting from re-measurement in this country Danish Vessels, the Certificates of Danish Nationality and Registry of which are dated on and after the 1st of October, 1867.

It appears that the Board of Trade did not furnish this Department, as in the present instance, with a copy of the Order in Council of the 29th of February, 1868, for transmission to the various Colonial Governments, I therefore enclose copies of that Order which (if not already published in the Colony) should be published at the same time as the amending Order.

L'EXPOSITION INTERNATIONALE DE MELBOURNE, 1880.

Conformément à une Commission émanée sous le grand sceau de la Colonie de Victoria, et avec la coopération du gouvernement impérial de Notre Gracieuse Souveraine la Reine, une Exposition Internationale des Arts, des Manufactures et des Produits Agricoles et Industriels de toutes les Nations, sera ouverte à Melbourne le 1er jour d'Octobre, 1880, et sera close le 31e jour de Mars, 1881.

L'Exposition aura lieu dans des bâtiments érigés spécialement à cet effet aux Carlton Gardens, situés au centre de Melbourne, et les frais d'érection de ces bâtiments ainsi que toutes les dépenses incidentes de l'Exposition seront défrayés par un fonds voté par le Parlement de Victoria.

Les Commissaires sont autorisés à inviter les Gouvernements britanniques, étrangers et coloniaux à prendre part à cette Exposition, et ils seront heureux d'apprendre que des moyens ont été pris pour s'y assurer la représentation de tous les pays et colonies.

Le fait que l'Australie a été représentée à toutes les grandes Expositions du monde, depuis son commencement en l'année 1851, le progrès qu'elle a fait dans l'industrie productive, l'étendue de ses relations commerciales et la haute position à laquelle ses importations et ses exportations sont arrivées, indiquent qu'elle est arrivée au point où elle peut, avec profit, inviter les grands pays manufacturiers à envoyer les produits les plus complets de leur experte industrie à un peuple qui est en position de devenir non seulement une pratique précieuse, mais encore un généreux compétiteur.

1. Demandes pour espace, avec tous les détails, doivent être faites le plus tôt possible. Copies de formes officielles d'entrée peuvent être obtenues en s'adressant au Secrétaire des Commissaires.

2. Excepté sous les circonstances spécifiées dans l'Article 4, demandes pour espace doivent être faites par l'entremise des représentants du pays ou de la colonie auxquels les candidats appartiennent.

3. Les Gouvernements des pays ayant intention de prendre part à cette Exposition, sont requis de donner avis à cet effet d'ici au 1er juin 1879.

4. Si toutefois il n'y avait point de représentants de nommés par le pays ou la colonie où réside celui qui se propose d'exposer, il peut s'adresser directement au Secrétaire de la Commission.

5. Demandes pour espace ne doivent pas être faites après le 30e jour de juin 1879.

6. Si les Gouvernements britanniques, étrangers et coloniaux, ont besoin de plus ou moins d'espace que celui qui leur est offert, ils, ou les commissaires par eux nommés, sont requis d'en informer la Commission de Melbourne, d'ici au 1er jour de janvier 1880, en spécifiant ce qu'il leur en faut. Ils sont aussi requis de dire s'ils auront à exhiber des articles pour lesquels il faudra un espace spécial, et de donner une description montrant la nature et la qualité de ses articles.

7. Avant le 1er jour de juin 1880, les représentants des pays ou colonies devront fournir des dessins approximatifs montrant la manière de partager l'espace qui leur est assigné, des listes de leurs exposants et autres informations nécessaires à la production du catalogue officiel.

8. Les commissaires représentant les pays ou les colonies, et les exposants particuliers, peuvent adopter un des trois procédés suivants, savoir :

(a) Ils peuvent expédier leurs effets par navire directement à Melbourne, et faire eux-mêmes leurs arrangements pour leur chargement, réception et exhibition.

(b) Ou consigner leurs effets
"To the Secretary International Exhibition, 1880, Melbourne, Australia,"
avec les instructions ayant rapport à ce que désiré.

Londres—Messrs. James McEwan & Co., 27 Lombard street, ou à Messrs. Mellwraith, McEachran & Co., Leadenhall-street.
Liverpool—Messrs. John Swire & Sons.
Glasgow—Messrs. Aitken, Lilburne & Co.

Anvers—Messrs. Jules Renard & Co.
New-York—Messrs. R. W. Cameron & Co.
San Francisco—Pacific Mail Company.
Tous les ports où la compagnie a des agences—The eninsular and Oriental Company.

9. Les ballots expédiés des pays et colonies représentés à l'Exhibition devront être adressés—

"To the Commissioner for.....
at the International Exhibition of 1880,
Melbourne,
Victoria, Australia,"

et avoir deux étiquettes portant le pavillon du pays auquel l'exposant appartient; ou, s'il n'y a pas de représentant de nommé :—

"To the Secretary
International Exhibition of 1880,
Melbourne,
Victoria,
Australia,"

et deux étiquettes, fixées sur deux côtés du ballot, pourvu que ce ne soit point sur deux côtés correspondants, donnant l'information suivante:—(1) Le pays d'où il vient. (2) Le nom ou la maison de l'exposant. (3) La résidence de l'exposant. (4) Le groupe et la classe auxquels les effets appartiennent. (5) Le nombre total des ballots envoyés par le même exposant. (6) Le numéro de la série d'un ballot particulier. Chaque ballot devra renfermer une liste des effets qu'il contient.

Les ballots venant des pays étrangers contenant des effets destinés à l'Exposition devront porter, comme marques distinctives, les lettres M.I.E. entourées d'un cercle (M.I.E)

Les ballots venant des pays étrangers devront tous être marqués de manière à montrer distinctement d'où ils viennent, savoir: avec les couleurs et les devises de leur pavillon national. Les commissaires étrangers sont spécialement requis d'envoyer à la Commission de Melbourne, aussitôt que possible, copies de la forme de l'adresse et des marques distinctives qu'ils ont particulièrement adoptées.

10. Dans les cas où les effets seraient envoyés à Melbourne par l'entremise d'aucun des agents de la commission ci-devant mentionnés, toutes dépenses pour fret, assurance maritime, etc., devront être payées d'avance par l'exposant, mais si cela offrait quelqu'inconvénient, les effets pourraient être expédiés, et les dépenses et le fret seraient payés par les agents. La somme fournie par les agents sera regardée comme première charge à être déduite du produit net de la vente des effets, si toutefois ces effets sont vendus. Si, cependant, tels effets ne sont pas vendus, mais sont réclamés par l'exposant ou son agent autorisé, à la clôture de l'Exposition, alors les sommes déboursées par la commission ou aucun de ses agents devront être payées avant que ces effets soient délivrés.

11. Les entrées de douanes, le transport, la réception, le déballage et l'arrangement des produits à exposer seront, si l'exposant l'exige, entrepris par la commission, au dépens de l'exposant.

12. Des arrangements seront pris pour le transport des effets, du port de Melbourne, ou des différentes stations de chemins de fer, au terrain de l'Exposition, à un prix fixe.

13. Les effets seront admis sans payer de droit. Il ne sera pas permis d'enlever les effets exposés avant la fin de l'Exposition, excepté sous des circonstances spéciales. Des facilités seront données pour la vente des effets, et la livraison en sera faite après la clôture de l'Exposition.

14. La protection des inventions susceptibles d'être patentées ainsi que des dessins, est assurée par les lois de patentes de Victoria.

15. Le placement et l'ajustement des articles pesants, nécessitant des bases particulières, devront être commencés, d'après un arrangement spéeial, aussitôt que les progrès de l'ouvrage des bâtiments de l'Exposition le permettront. La réception générale des articles dans les bâtisses de l'Exposition commencera le 1er juin 1880, et aucun article ne sera admis après le 31 août 1880. Les plans pour l'étalage et l'accommodation des objets dont l'érection nécessitera des arrangements spéciaux ou des travaux exceptionnels devront recevoir l'approbation de la commission avant d'être exécutés et le seront sous la surveillance d'agents de la commission. Les préparations spéciales mentionnées précédemment seront commencées aussitôt que les édifices et diverses annexes seront dans un état suffisamment avancé pour le permettre. Les travaux généraux d'aménagement devront être commencés pas plus tard que le 1er mai 1880, et tout devra être prêt pour la réception des effets avant le 15e jour de juillet 1880.

16. L'espace réservé aux pays et colonies, et non occupé le premier jour de septembre, 1880, sera de nouveau à la disposition de la commission, et sera sujet à un nouvel arrangement.

17. Si les effets ne sont pas destinés à la compétition, les exposants devront le mentionner, et ils ne seront point soumis à l'examen des jurés internationaux.

18. Un Catalogue Officiel sera publié en anglais par la commission, qui s'en réservera le droit de vente. Chaque pays et colonie auront cependant le droit de publier à leurs propres frais, mais dans leurs langues seulement, un catalogue spécial des objets qu'ils auront exposés. Aucun ouvrage d'art, ni aucun article que ce soit, exposé dans les édifices, les pares ou les jardins, ne pourront être dessinés, copiés ou reproduits en aucune manière queleonque, sans la permission de l'exposant. La commission se réserve le droit de permettre la produetion des vues générales.

19. Les représentants des pays et colonies, quand ils seront nommés, seront libres de grouper leurs effets comme ils le jugeront à propos, dans la partie de la bâtisse de l'Exposition qui sera destinée au pays ou à la colonie qu'ils représentent.

20. Les effets, provenant d'aucun pays ou colonie, dont le gouvernement n'est pas représenté, seront groupés suivant l'ordre des classes suivantes. Le même ordre sera suivi dans le catalogue :—

1. Œuvres d'art.
2. Edueation et instruction. Appareils et procédés des arts libéraux.
3. Meubles et accessoires.
4. Tissus fabriqués, habillements et accessoires.
5. Produits bruts et manufacturés.
6. Mécanique. Appareils et procédés employés dans les industries mécaniques.
7. Produits alimentaires.
8. Agriculture.
9. Horticulture.
10. Industries minières. Mécanique et produits.

Chacun de ces groupes sera divisé en classes, d'après le système de classification générale annexé aux présents règlements (Annexe.) Cette annexe renferme pour chaque classe une énumération sommaire des objets qui doivent y entrer.

21. Une quantité limitée de vapeur et de pouvoir d'eau seront fournis gratuitement. La quantité qui pourra être fournie à chacun sera réglée définitivement au moment du partage de l'espace. Les Commissaires désirent encourager l'étalage de la mécanique en mouvement, et ils s'efforceront de procurer la force suffisante pour satisfaire toutes demandes raisonnables. Toute force motrice requise par l'exposant, excédant la quantité allouée, sera fournie par la commission à un prix raisonnable. Les demandes pour les surplus de pouvoir moteur devront être réglées avant le 31 août 1880.

22. Le but voulu, en introduisant le pouvoir à vapeur, n'est pas seulement de procurer les moyens de représenter uniquement la méeanique de certaines manufactures, mais de représenter les manufactures elles-mêmes ; et il sera de plus pourvu à un espace dans l'Exposition pour la production d'intéressants objets de travaux manuels.

23. Les exposants devront se procurer, à leurs propres frais, tous vitrages, tablettes, comptoirs, ajustements, etc., dont ils auront besoin ; et tous arbres de couche, poulies, courroies, etc, etc., appropriés à la force motrice dont ils auront besoin ; mais la commission est prête, si on le vent, et en lui fournissant tous les détails, à faire des arrangements pour la construction des vitrages, par contrat à tant du pied cube, le coût devant être à la charge de l'exposant qui s'en servira. Toutes décorations et arrangements artistiques devront être approuvés par la commission.

24. La commission se réserve le droit de ne pas accepter ou de renvoyer tout article proposé pour l'Exposition.

25. Les règlements spéciaux suivants sont réglés pour la réception et l'admission des œuvres d'art. Les œuvres admissibles comprendront les cinq classes ci-après mentionnées :—

1. Peintures.
2. Dessins, aquarelles, dessins au crayon, miniatures, émaux, porcelaine, dessins pour vitraux en verres coloriés (à l'exception de ceux qui représentent simplement des sujets d'ornementation), et l'ouvrage de mosaïque.
3. Sculpture et empreintes, et gravure sur pierres précieuses.
4. Architecture.
5. Gravures et lithographie.

26. Les suivantes sont exclues :—

1. Images ou dessins non encadrés.
2. Sculpture en terre non cuite.

27. Le devoir de décider l'admission des œuvres d'art sera confié à un juré spécial. Des appartements spéciaux convenables seront réservés pour l'exposition de telles anciennes peintures et œuvre d'art admises par le juré spécial. D'autres règlements donneront information pour ce qui a trait à l'envoi et à la réception des œuvres d'art.

28. Des facilités seront données, sur demande faite à la commission, pour l'érection des constructions spéciales, soit à l'intérieur ou à l'extérieur des bâtisses.

29. La commission prendra tout le soin possible des objets exposés, mais ne sera aucunement responsable des dommages ou pertes causés par le feu ou autrement.

30. On facilitera aux représentants des pays et colonies, et aux exposants particuliers, l'assurance de leurs effets ; et ils pourront aussi employer des gardiens pour surveiller leurs effets durant les heures que l'Exposition sera ouverte au public. La nomination de tels gardiens sera soumise à l'approbation de la commission. Ces personnes devront porter un habillement spécial ou une marque distinctive, et il leur sera toujours loisible d'appeler la police à leur aide.

31. Les articles dangereux ou offensifs, de quelque manière que ce soit, ou injurieux à la décence ou à la moralité publique, ne seront pas admis à l'Exposition.

32. La reproduction d'esquisses, dessins, photographies, ou autres articles exhibés, ne sera permise que du consentement mutuel de l'exposant et des commissaires ; mais des vues de parties quelconques de la bâtisse pourront être prises, avec la seule permission de la commission.

33. Voici de quelle manière les jugements seront rendus :—

Les jugements seront fondés sur des rapports écrits, adoptés par les jurés.

Les jurés seront choisis pour leur caractère et leurs qualifications connus, et devront être habiles dans ce qui regarde les départements qui leur seront spécialement assignés ; les jurés britanniques, étrangers et coloniaux seront nommés par les représentants de chaque pays ou colonie qui exhiberont.

Les jurés pour Victoria seront nommés par la Commission de Melbourne.

Les jurés seront remboursés de leurs dépenses particulières.

Les rapports et les jugements seront basés sur le mérite inhérent et relatif présent, en considération ce qui a rapport à l'originalité, l'invention, la découverte, l'utilité, la qualité, l'habileté, la main-d'œuvre, l'à-propos, l'adaptation aux besoins du public, l'économie et le coût des choses.

Chaque rapport sera délivré à la commission aussitôt que complété.

Des médailles d'or, d'argent et de bronze, des certificats de mentions honorables ainsi que des rapports spéciaux des jugements des jurés, se rapportant à la chose jugée, seront offerts en récompenses.

Chaque exposant aura le droit de produire et publier le rapport qui lui sera décerné, mais la commission se réserve le droit de publier et de disposer de tous les rapports de la manière qu'elle jugera être la plus favorable pour l'information du public, et pour rassembler et distribuer les dits rapports comme mémoires de l'Exposition.

34. Immédiatement après la clôture de l'Exposition, les exposants, ou leurs agents reconnus, devront enlever leurs effets—tel enlèvement devra être terminé au 1er juin 1881. Les articles non enlevés à cette date, seront vendus à l'encan ou autrement, sous la direction de la commission, et le prix en provenant remis aux exposants ou à leurs agents reconnus.

35. Toute personne exposant devra se conformer aux règles et règlements établis pour l'administration de l'Exposition.

36. La commission se réserve le droit de changer, d'expliquer, d'amender ou d'amplifier les présents règlements, si elle le juge nécessaire.

On peut obtenir information sur n'importe quelle question de détails en s'adressant à,

" The Agent General for Victoria,
8 Victoria Chambers,
Victoria Street,
Westminster,
39—3 London, S. W."

(Circulaire.)

Downing Street,
27 janvier 1879.

Monsieur, — J'ai l'honneur de vous transmettre pour votre information et pour la faire publier dans la colonie sous votre gouvernement, une copie d'un ordre de la Reine en Conseil, en date du 30 décembre dernier, en vertu des actes concernant la marine marchande, modifiant un précédent ordre du conseil du 20 février 1868, exemptant de re-jaugeage dans ce pays les bâtiments danois, dont les certificats de nationalité danoise et d'enregistrement sont datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867.

Il appert que la chambre de commerce n'a pas communiqué à ce département, comme dans le cas actuel, une copie d'un ordre du conseil en date du 20 février 1878, pour être transmise aux différents gouvernements coloniaux, c'est pourquoi j'inclus des copies de cet ordre, qui (si elles ne sont pas déjà publiées dans la colonie) devraient être publiées en même temps comme l'ordre le modifiant.

J'ai l'honneur d'être,
Monsieur,
Votre très-obéissant et humble serviteur,

M. E. HICKS BEACH.

L'officier administrant
le gouvernement du Canada.

A la Cour à Osborne House, Ile de Wight, le 29 février 1868.

PRÉSENT :

Sa Très Excellente Majesté la Reine en Conseil.

ATTENDU que par l'"Acte amendant l'acte concernant la marine marchande de 1862" il est décrété que "lorsqu'il sera démontré à Sa Majesté "que les règlements concernant le jaugeage des bâti- "ments marchands alors en vigueur en vertu de l'acte

" principal, ont été adoptés par le gouvernement " d'un pays étranger et sont exécutoires dans ce " pays, il sera loisible à Sa Majesté, par ordre du conseil, de décréter que les bâtiments de tels pays " étrangers, seront réputés avoir le tonnage indique " dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autrés " pièces nationales et qu'il ne sera pas nécessaire que " ces bâtiments soient jaugés de nouveau dans au- " cun port ou endroit dans les domaines de Sa Ma- " jesté, mais ces bâtiments seront réputés avoir le " tonnage indiqué dans leurs certificats d'enregistre- " ment ou autres pièces, de la même manière, au " même degré, et pour les mêmes fins pour lesquelles " le tonnage indiqué dans le certificat d'enregistre- " ment des bâtiments anglais est réputé être le ton- " nage de ces bâtiments."

Et attendu qu'il a été démontré à Sa Majesté que les règlements concernant le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands maintenant en vigueur en vertu de " l'Acte concernant la marine marchande de 1854 " ont été adoptés par le gouvernement de Sa Majesté le Roi du Danemark, et sont en vigueur dans ce pays, et que ces règlements sont exécutoires le 1er jour d'octbre mil huit cent soixante-sept,—

Il a plu à Sa Majesté, par les présentes, de l'avis du Conseil Privé, de décréter que les bâtiments du Danemark dont les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement, datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867, seront réputés être le tonnage indiqué dans les dits certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement.

ARTHUR HELPS.

(Pour l'Ordre en Conseil de 1878, voir l'avis du ministère de la Marine et des Pêcheries, plus bas.

AVIS RELATIF AU TONNAGE INTERNATIONAL.

La copie suivante d'un ordre récemment émis par Sa Majesté en conseil modifie un ordre précédent du conseil, en date du 29 février 1868, exemptant les bâtiments danois d'être jaugés de nouveau, pourvu que les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement soient datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867.

WM. SMITH,
Député ministre de la Marine.

Département de la Marine,
Ottawa, 6 mars 1879.

A la cour à Osborne House, Ile de Wight, le 30ème jour de décembre 1878.

PRÉSENT :

Sa Très Excellente Majesté la Reine en conseil :

ATTENDU que par " l'Acte amendé concernant " la marine marchande de 1862, " il est décrété " que chaque fois qu'il sera démontré à Sa Majesté " que les règlements concernant le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands alors en vigueur en vertu de l'acte " principal, ont été adoptés par le gouvernement " d'un pays étranger et sont exécutoires dans ce " pays, il sera loisible à Sa Majesté, par ordre du conseil, de décréter que les bâtiments de tels pays " étrangers, seront réputés avoir le tonnage indiqué " dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autres " pièces nationales et qu'il ne sera pas nécessaire que " ces bâtiments soient jaugés de nouveau dans au- " cun port ou endroit dans les domaines de Sa Majesté, mais ces bâtiments seront réputés avoir le " tonnage indiqué dans leurs certificats d'enregistrement ou autres pièces, de la même manière, au " même degré, et pour les mêmes fins, pour lesquelles " le tonnage indiqué dans le certificat d'enregistrement des bâtiments anglais est réputé être le tonnage de ces bâtiments ;"

Et attendu que par " l'Acte concernant la marine marchande de 1876," il est décrété " que quand Sa " Majesté a le pouvoir en vertu de " l'Acte concernant la marine marchande de 1854," ou tout acte " passé ou qui sera adopté amendant le dit acte, de " passer un ordre du conseil, il sera loisible à Sa " Majesté de temps à autre de révoquer, d'altérer ou " d'ajouter à tout ordre ainsi fait ; "

Et attendu que par un ordre du conseil, daté du 29 février 1868 il a plu à Sa Majesté, à laquelle il a été prouvé que les dits règlements pour le jaugeage des bâtiments marchands ont été adoptés par le gouvernement de Sa Majesté, le roi du Danemark, de décréter que les bâtiments du Danemark, les certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement, datés le et après le 1er octobre 1867, seront réputés être le tonnage indiqué dans les dits certificats d'origine danoise et d'enregistrement ;

Et attendu que certaines modifications ont été faites récemment dans les règlements relatifs au tonnage des bâtiments marchands, qui sont en vigueur au Danemark, par lesquels, depuis et après le 1er jour d'octobre 1878, l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans certains navires sera calculé d'un mode différent de celui qui est en vigueur dans ce pays ;

Et attendu qu'il a été démontré à Sa Majesté qu'il est désirable de modifier le dit ordre du conseil, autant qu'il s'applique ou se rattache au mode de calculer l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans les navires danois,—il a plu à Sa Majesté par et de l'avis du Conseil Privé de décréter, pour ce qui concerne les bâtiments danois, que si le propriétaire ou le capitaine d'aucun navire marchand, appartenant au dit royaume du Danemark, et jaugé après le dit 1er jour d'octobre 1878, mû par la vapeur ou toute autre force motrice nécessitant un compartiment pour la machine, désire que l'espace alloué au compartiment de la machine dans son bâtiment soit calculé conformément au règlement pour le mesurage du compartiment de la machine, applicables aux bâtiments anglais, au lieu de l'être en vertu des règlements danois, le compartiment de la machine sera mesuré et l'espace calculé d'après les règlements anglais.

DEMANDES AU PARLEMENT.

PARLEMENT FÉDÉRAL.

Règles relatives aux avis de bills privés.

51. Dans le cas de toute demande de bill privé, proprement du ressort législatif du Parlement du Canada, suivant les dispositions de l'Acte de l'Amérique Britannique du Nord, 1867, et ayant pour objet, soit la construction d'un pont, d'un chemin de fer, d'un chemin à barrières ou d'une ligne télégraphique; soit la construction ou l'amélioration d'un port, d'un canal, d'une écluse, d'une digue ou d'une glissoire, ou autre ouvrage semblable ; soit la concession d'un droit de passage d'eau, l'incorporation de professions ou métiers, ou d'une compagnie de banque ou autre compagnie par actions, soit la concession à une ou plusieurs personnes de certains droits ou priviléges exclusifs ou particuliers, soit le pouvoir de faire quelque chose qui, dans ses effets, pourrait toucher aux droits ou à la propriété d'autrui, ou concerner une classe particulière de la société ; ou ayant pour objet quelque amendement de même nature à un acte antérieur,—un avis, énonçant d'une manière claire et intelligible la nature et l'objet de la demande, et signé (excepté s'il s'agit de corporations déjà existantes) par les pétitionnaires ou de leur part, est nécessaire et doit être publié comme il suit :

Dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba :

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada en anglais et en français, ainsi que dans un journal anglais et un journal français du district intéressé, ou en anglais et en français dans le même journal, s'il ne s'en publie qu'un seul dans ce district ; ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication de l'avis en anglais et en français doit se faire dans un journal du district le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

Dans les autres provinces :

Un avis doit être inséré dans la Gazette du Canada et dans un journal du comté ou des comtés-unis intéressés, ou s'il n'y paraît pas de journal, alors la publication doit se faire dans un journal du comté le plus voisin où il s'en publie.

La publication de ces avis durera, dans chaque cas, la période de deux mois pendant l'intervalle de temps qui s'écoulera entre la clôture de la session précédente et la prise en considération de la pétition. Un exemplaire des numéros des journaux, reproduisant la première et la dernière insertion de l'avis, devra être transmis au greffier de chaque Chambre.

Si la pétition demande l'autorisation de présenter un bill privé ayant pour objet la construction d'un pont de péage, le pétitionnaire ou les pétitionnaires devront, en même temps qu'ils donneront l'avis prescrit par la règle précédente, donner aussi, de la même manière, avis des péages qu'ils entendent exiger, de l'étendue du privilége, de la hauteur des arches, de l'espace à laisser libre entre les culées ou les piliers pour le passage de radeaux et des navires ; et mentionner de plus s'ils se proposent de construire un pont mobile, et quelles en seront les dimensions.

Toute personne désirant obtenir un bill privé devra, dans les huit jours qui précèderont l'ouverture du Parlement, déposer au bureau du greffier de la Chambre dans laquelle le bill doit prendre naissance, une copie de ce bill en langue anglaise ou en langue française, avec une somme suffisante pour en payer la traduction et l'impression. Il en sera imprimé 600 exemplaires en anglais et 200 en français ; la traduction devra être faite par les officiers de la Chambre, et l'impression par l'entrepreneur des impressions. Le pétitionnaire aura aussi à payer au comptable de la Chambre une somme de $200, plus le coût de l'impression de l'acte dans les Statuts, et remettra le reçu de ce paiement au greffier du comité auquel ce bill aura été renvoyé—le dit paiement sera effectué immédiatement après la seconde lecture avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité.

Aucune pétition pour l'obtention d'un bill privé ne sera reçue par l'une ou par l'autre Chambre après les dix premiers jours de la session.

Greffier du Sénat.
ALFRED PATRICK,
Greffier des Communes.

Règles du Sénat relatives aux avis de bills de divorce.

L'avis doit être inséré pendant six mois, à la Gazette du Canada, et dans deux journaux du district (si c'est dans les provinces de Québec et de Manitoba.) ou du comté ou des comtés-unis, (si c'est dans les autres provinces.) où le pétitionnaire résidait ordinairement lors de la séparation ; et si le nombre voulu de journaux n'y paraît pas, alors la publication de l'avis devra se faire dans le district, le comté ou les comtés-unis voisins.

Un exemplaire en manuscrit de l'avis devra être signifié, à l'instance du pétitionnaire, à la personne d'avec laquelle il veut divorcer, si le lieu de la résidence de cette dernière peut être connu ; et la preuve de cette signification ou de la diligence faite pour l'effectuer, doit être produite sous serment devant le Sénat et à sa satisfaction, lors de la lecture de la pétition.
